CRIMES SAVE GIRL FROM DEATH

Society Girl's Brother
Declares Gas Poisoning
Accidental

Young Lady Seriously Ill
as Result of an Accident

Miss Florence Selby, prominent leader of the Younger social set, a daughter of the late Louis Selby, prominent merchant, is in a precarious condition at her home today as a result of gas poisoning. Members of the family declare that the girl's condition is due to an accident, but the police maintain that there are peculiar circumstances surrounding the case.

At 5 o'clock this morning the family was awakened by the sound of gas issuing from Miss Selby's room on an upper floor of the West street home. The girl's mother rushed into the bedroom and found her unconscious body on the bed. Gas was escaping from an open cock in a combination light and stove arrangement on the floor at the foot of the bed.

POLICE SUMMONED.
The police were summoned by telephone. The ambulance was rushed to the house, but Miss Selby had so far recovered upon its arrival that it was not deemed necessary to remove her to the Receiving Hospital.

Louis Selby, Jr., an older brother of the young woman, declared emphatically this morning that his sister's condition was due entirely to an accident.

"My sister got up at 4:30 o'clock to go into her bathroom," he said. "She reached up and turned on the electric light above her head before leaving the room. Upon her return she must have turned the gas cock, which is attached to a heater in the room in her effort to turn off the electric light."

AWAKENED BY GROANS.

A few moments later we were awakened by the sound of groans coming from her room. We rushed into the room and found the girl lying unconscious. She was not in such a bad condition that the police were called.

ed brother became excited, lost his head, and telephoned for the police ambulance.

FATHER PROMINENT.

Louis Selby, father of Miss Selby, was prominent in the business and financial world of Oakland and San Francisco. He founded the Selby Investment Company, with its subsidiary concerns, and the Brown Phosphate Company and the National Amusement Company. These enterprises are being carried on by his widow, and his sons, Louis Jr. and David.

The Selby came in for considerable publicity a short time ago when Mrs. David Selby claimed part of the estate of the late F. J. (Louie) Selby. She said that she was an adopted daughter of the millionaire horseman. The case was carried into the courts and was suddenly compromised for $250,000.

Teams at Work In Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 4.—Business was resumed under almost normal conditions today, the fourth day of the strike of the Teamsters' and Chauffeurs' Union. Virtually all team owners had at least a part of their forces in operation.

It was announced by the union today that only 125 teams owners, employing about 900 men, had signed the tentative agreement submitted yesterday by the union officials. The list did not include any of the large employers.

Collects $1,735,928 For First Tax Levy

Tax Collector James D. Barber today reported that his collection of taxes of the levy for 1913, first installment, amounted to $1,735,928.31. The total amount due on the first payment installment to $1,503,423.22, leaving a delinquency of $20,495.21, which will be carried over to the next spring, when the second installment will be due.

Exclusive of the delinquency of the first installment there would be due $1,184,537.21 in the second installment. The delinquency this year is in average proportions with other years.

Sues Slaver for Earnings of Years

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Lily Slaver, the 17-year-old girl found here by her brother Louis after a four-year search, extending across the country, filed suit today against Wolf Wolborsky. She asks for $4000, the amount of money which she claims she has turned over to the man during the years that she has been in his company.

The girl filed with Wolborsky, who abandoned his wife and children. Her brother Louis trailed her from city to city and finally found a clew here which led to her discovery in Stockton. It was claimed that she has given Wolborsky $1000 a year from her earnings in the underworld. The man's funds in the underworld bank have been attached.

F. L. Tisdale Will Filed for Probate

Disposing of an estate valued at $25,000, the will of the late Flora L. Tisdale, wife of Dr. T. P. Tisdale and mother of Coroner Charles L. By the terms of the will all the real property located in Alameda, where the family has resided for many years, is bequeathed to the widow, who will hold a life interest. Upon her death it will be divided among the three children, Dr. Charles L. Tisdale, Louise Tisdale Smith of New York and Blanche Tisdale James of Alameda. Portions also will revert to Mrs. Charles L. The will was dated November 1.

MEMBERS DISCUSS MERGER

Commercial Organizations Name Committee to Act

One Progress Club for the Entire City Is Planned

Twenty members of the leading commercial organizations of Oakland yesterday, at the first meeting of the consolidation conference committee, held in the Chamber of Commerce, formally launched the movement to re-organize the commercial organizations of the city. The session was devoted principally to gaining expressions of opinion from these present. It was decided that a definite plan for the consolidation be drawn up, and a committee consisting of two members from each of the five who represented the different delegations take up this matter. The Tax Association and Progress and Prosperity Committee were asked to send delegates. The committee to plan the tentative organization scheme is composed of the following: Commercial Club, O. E. Hotel and F. W. Leavitt; Chamber of Commerce, H. C. Capwell and Dr. Charles L. Tisdale; Exchange, A. H. Schluter and Harry Williams; Manufacturers' Committee, F. W. Bilger and John Phillips. To these will be added two from the Tax Association and two from the Progress and Prosperity Committee.

CLASH AT VIEW.

A wordy war was threatened when the suggestion was made that the Manufacturers' Committee might not be entitled to a vote in the committee. It was alleged, a sub-organization of the chamber.

"This move started our committee," declared John Phillips. "Anyhow, we pay our own dues and hire our own employees, for our own work. We certainly want representation here."

"Let them in," urged H. C. Capwell. "It was decided to also allow the Progress and Prosperity Committee representation."

The sentiment was practically unanimous that a consolidation would be beneficial. Every delegate, however, had different ideas as to detail and this part of the question was referred at once to the new committee.

A. Jones declared that the time was not ripe, and that the Chamber of Commerce, as a result of new organizations, and new moves starting, was in a serious financial condition.

"That's the best argument I know for consolidation," said Dr. Pardee.

The matter of choosing the committee was the cause of argument, some demanding that the parent organizations do it, others that the committee be chosen by the new men.

MUST NAME COMMITTEE.

"If you let the parent organizations name the committee it will be co-ordinate and not subordinate to you," declared B. A. Forrester. "If the committee is to report back to you you must name it." Forrester then suggested that each of the committees before the question was referred for the new committee. This was adopted.

The new committee will outline their plan and call the original committee together again. Here the matter will be threshed out and approved by all, and then placed before the organizations. The next meeting, it is expected, will be called within two weeks.

The session was the result of the call for consolidation voiced by H. C. Capwell before a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors. The Manufacturers' Committee had been working on the problem for four months, and already had learned that the sentiment of the membership of the organizations, who pay the dues, was for the plan. There is practically no opposition save on details.

GIBSON IS CHAIRMAN.

President W. E. Gibson of the Chamber of Commerce, called the session to order, briefly outlining the project at hand.

H. C. Capwell moved that Gibson be elected chairman. This was unanimously carried. Harry Williams was named secretary.

"There is no order of business," said Gibson. "This is a conference. I hope no brickbats will be thrown. The matter of figuring a method of co-operation is before us. I will now call on Mr. Capwell to outline his view of the plan."

When the Manufacturers' Committee delegation was seated Gibson declared that they were there, although a sub-committee. "I would welcome them," said Gibson. "So if there is no objection let us conclude this. No objection was voiced."

"I have not given this plan much thought lately," said Capwell. "In the past, however, I have, and I believe myself that there will be no animosity, so far as I am concerned, I thought that the Manufacturers' Committee was a part of the Chamber of Commerce. I am ready to welcome them. I would welcome all. Still that cannot be done now, for it would close progress."

"This is a preliminary session, to see if we can come together. Later

CAFES ARE NAMED FOR ATTACK

Oakland Central Union
and Others Begin Fight

Child's Welfare League
Join in Demand on Council

Naming the same twelve cafes, the revocation of whose licenses was demanded by the Public Welfare League ten days ago, petitions were filed with the city council this morning by the Oakland Central Union of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, by the East Oakland Union of the same organization and by the Child's Welfare League of Alameda County. The petitions designate the cafes named as deadfalls guilty of known violations of the law and demand the revocation of licenses for cause.

ARE NOT SATISFIED.

The reform forces of this city are not satisfied by this council compromise. In a petition filed ten days ago, the Public Welfare League, reminded the commissioners that at the time the liquor ordinance was first under consideration it had been promised that certain cafes should be closed and the licenses revoked for cause. The list submitted and reiterated in three petitions filed this morning, places "Tod and Red's" cafe in Tenth street, the one allowed to remain by the council resolution at the head of the list of objectionable cafes. To the list of nine to be reduced by the resolution passed by the city council, the petitions add the cafes, 311 Broadway, and the Heidelberg, 14th and Broadway.

PLACED ON FILE.

These petitions have been placed on file by the city council. No further notice has been taken on the matter. The three presented this morning aroused no comment, but were formally placed on file in silence.

The resolution from the Child's Welfare League reads in substance as follows:

"Whereas there exist in Oakland a considerable number of cafes which are known to have violated the law, and which can therefore be looked upon by the members of our society and by the public at large in no other light than deadfalls for young women of our city.

The resolutions from the two unions of the W. C. T. U. were similar of the cafes mentioned were as follows:

Tod and Red's, 419-421 Tenth street, The Lodge, 487 Tenth street, The Palace, 530 Seventh street, The Tavern, 372 Seventh street, The Hoffman, 430-432 Seventh street.

The Savoy, Ninth and Broadway, The Grotto, 442 Eighth street, Frank's, 532 Franklin street, H. and H., 509 Eleventh street, The Nevada, 383 Eleventh street, The Heidelberg, Fourteenth and Broadway.

Allege Misuse of

Mails in Lot Sale

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4.—An alleged land fraud which, according to postoffice inspectors, was conducted in several states through the medium of moving picture shows and the United States mails, led to the arrest here today of W. B. Emrich and N. H. Spitzer of Louisville, Ky. The two were arraigned before a United States commissioner on a charge of misuse of the mails.

According to the federal charge, tickets for picture shows and the announcement made to the holders of "lucky" numbers would be given a deed to a camper's lot near Guernville, Sonoma county, California. It is alleged that the "lucky" ones were then required to pay more for the "lucky" papers than the lots were worth.

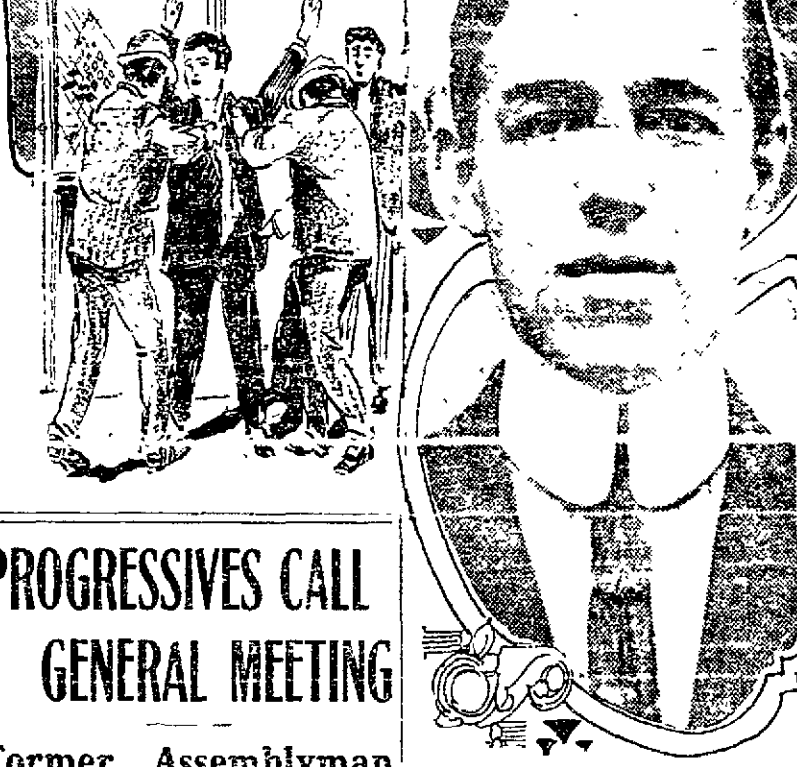

Reports Wreck of

U S Chin 'San Juan'

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—A cable message to the Chamber of Commerce here from Manila via London and dated yesterday reports the bare fact that the United States vessel San Juan was wrecked near Pangel. Neither the date of the wreck or any details are given.

None of the reference books list the San Juan and the United States hydrographic bureau here has no knowledge of any United States vessel of that name.

PLIMOUTH, Eng., Dec. 4.—Wind and sea today helped the police to evade the posse of suffragettes who had planned to prevent the re-arrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst under the provisions of the "cat and mouse act."

A heavy sea was running in the harbor when the steamship Majestic anchored shortly after noon. The waves, while they did not affect the powerful police tug, were too much

Thieves Operate in Center of Business District

TWO armed robbers held up Night Clerk A. J. Cottrell and Elevator Tender George Johnson of the Hotel Athens, 1556 Broadway, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, and looted the till, taking $9. The bandits overlooked a sack of gold which had been thrown into the back part of the drawer.

The Athens hotel, one of the well-known hostleries in the heart of the business district, had evidently been watched by the two bandits for some hours, as they chose the hour when Cottrell and Johnson were eating a midnight luncheon in a little room back of the hotel office and adjoining the elevator shaft.

The two robbers did not answer descriptions of any of the bandits who have been operating in Oakland for the past two weeks, and it is thought that they form a third pair of hold-up men. Inspectors St. Clair Hodgkins and Thos. Woon were detailed to investigate the hold-up today, and every effort will be made to apprehend the criminals. The police were immediately notified, but search last night proved of no avail.

The robbery was conducted with the utmost care by the two men, the younger of whom was only 19 years of age, according to Cottrell, the elder being not over 21 years. The leader in the robbery was the boy, 19 years of age, who acted as spokesman for the two and ordered his companion around. He acted with great coolness.

STOPPED TO EAT.

Cottrell and Johnson had stepped into the small room or alcove back of the office to partake of a light midnight luncheon last night, when they heard the door of the hotel lobby being opened from Broadway.

Cottrell rose and started through the short passage which leads past the office door toward the lobby. He saw two men step to one side as though to go to the telephone or to a desk used by the guests for writing letters and telegrams.

Cottrell stepped one side to enter the office, when the short man suddenly turned upon him with a nickel-plated revolver in his hand. The man placed the revolver against Cottrell's stomach and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Johnson realized the danger, and attempted to slip out the back way. He was stopped by the taller bandit, who held a blue-steel revolver in his hand.

"Put him in the back room," the short man instructed his companion, and the tall bandit marched Johnson into the rear room and kept him covered with his revolver there.

"Hand over the cash," the spokesman of the two then ordered. Cottrell opened the cash till and showed the money.

OVERLOOKED GOLD.

"Bring it over here, Bill," he was ordered. He obeyed. The bandit did not notice the sack of gold, amounting to about $40, in the back of the drawer.

The short man then placed Cottrell

Class Rivalry Boosts Dances Championship Is at Stake

MISS MINNA WEIDEMANN AND WILL STEVENSON, ON WHOSE AGILE DANCING THE HIGH SENIORS OF THE MANUAL TRAINING HIGH SCHOOL BASE THEIR HOPES OF THE "DANCE CHAMPIONSHIP."

Class rivalry as an incentive to dancing is the latest high school custom developed in the Oakland Manual Training and Commercial High school and as a consequence the high and low seniors will dance it out tomorrow evening when the senior ball of the school will be held. Devotees of the dance will be with each other for the honor of their classes, the most graceful dancers to claim the championship.

The rivalry started at the recent low senior dance, when an elaborate class emblem was shown, and a challenge made that the other class "could not touch their decorations or their dancing." The decorations for the coming dance are elaborate. Dance practicing is also active, and the whole school is looking forward to the contest.

Several clever couples among the high seniors are relied on to "bring home the bacon." Miss Minna Weidemann and Will Stevenson attracted some attention at the last dance, and will be in the contest for this week. Stevenson, with Miss Annie Street and Miss Jessie Ono, will handle the reception of guests.

"I think we will show the other class up," said Stevenson. "At any rate a dancing contest is a better custom than a class rush, and if the school likes it let's keep it up. We certainly get more fun out of it."

APPEAL TO "INNER" MAN, WAY TO REACH DRUNKARD

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—The cure of drunkards by appealing to the subliminal, or inner and spiritual man, was described by Dr. John D. Quackenbush, former professor of psychology at Columbia university, here at the opening session of the forty-third annual meeting of the American Society for the Study of Alcohol and Other Narcotics. Prominent physicians from all sections of the country, and if the school likes it let's keep it up. We certainly get more fun out of it."

Ex-Minister Mahany Saved From Suicide

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 4.—Relatives late last night took Roland B. Mahany of Buffalo, N. Y., a former minister to Ecuador, from a hospital here, where he had been recovering after two attempts to commit suicide. He boarded a train, saying he would visit an aunt in Meadville, Pa., before returning to his home.

After taking poison last Saturday Mahany was taken to the hospital, where his life was saved. A few hours later he cut his throat with a razor. He refused to talk about his case, but admitted last night he had tried to kill himself because of remorse.

At a recent dinner in Buffalo, he said, he had been drunk, and while under the influence of the drug had been induced to say things he regretted. When he realized what he had done he immediately left Buffalo, and after wandering about Pennsylvania and Maryland, came here.

Roads Must Furnish Cars for Own Lines

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Interstate Commerce Commission held today that each interstate railroad "be charged with the duty of furnishing cars for the transportation conducted over its line," quite irrespective of any contract one railroad may have entered into with another providing for a joint supply of cars.

The decision concerned the rules governing the distribution of coal cars in times of car shortage by the Colorado and Southern, the Denver and Rio Grande, the Colorado and Southwestern. The commission held that the contract, as to car distribution between the first and last of these lines caused discrimination among shippers and therefore was unlawful.

HATS TOO SMALL; CLUB MEN FORCED TO WAIT

The first of the red and blue hats planned for the great "red and blue" membership campaign of the Commercial Club, arrived today. As yet no wearers have been found. Former Senator Frank Leavitt volunteered to wear one of the headpieces, only to discover that boys' sized hats had been sent. They were either exchanged or exchanged.

CLUBWOMEN HEAR LAW. A large number of women gathered today on the mezzanine floor at the Hotel Oakland to hear the lecture on parliamentary law delivered by Miss Alice Fleener as a part of the course being given the clubwomen of Oakland. Miss Fleener, who is associated with the extension work of the University of California, took up several legal problems involving the conduct of formal proceedings.

Organized Plumbing Thieves Get Rich Loot

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The bad boy's trick of stealing lead pipe for money to see the moving picture has been developed to a higher form of organized thievery which has cost plumbing contractors in this city the loss of more than $100,000 worth of fixtures during last year. The situation has become so serious that a committee of master plumbers has laid before the police commissioner a long list of such robberies and petitioned for increased protection.

It is declared that the thieves keep a close watch on all new buildings under construction and whenever opportunity offers one or two of the men, having scraped up an acquaintance with the watchman, succeed in enticing him away for drinks, while others drive up with a truck and cart away the valuable fittings of brass and nickel tools.

Former Swiss Soldier Suspected of Murder

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A former Swiss soldier, who lived at the home of Mrs. Agnes Guth and had been introduced by her as her second husband, had disappeared today and efforts to solve the murder of Mrs. Guth centered in the attempt to find him. Mrs. Guth, a prosperous West Side dressmaker, was found dead in bed last night with four knife wounds in her body, almost any of which might have caused her death.

CABILLA COUNCIL Y. M. I., TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

The members of Cabilla Council, No. 614, Y. M. I., are arranging to give an entertainment on Saturday evening, December 6, in the I. O. E. S. hall, at which time an excellent program will be presented. Some time ago, the dramatic club of the council presented a comedy entitled "Slasher and Crasher" at a benefit entertainment in St. Joseph's hall, and on account of the limited space in the auditorium it was impossible to accommodate the large audience. Repeated requests have been made that the council again present the comedy, and this time will be on the Saturday night's program. Added numbers will be a dialogue in black face by A. A. Sousa and J. A. Warrick, the comedian of the council, Hawaiian selections on the guitar, and other features.

YOUTHFUL BURGLAR IS CAUGHT BY POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—After following two homes, then being put to flight by a 19-year-old girl and finally arrested by a patrol-wagon driver, a youth giving the name of Felix Dodge was lodged in the city prison last night and charged with burglary. Although the actual arrest was made by Patrol-wagon Driver James Kennedy, a large part of the credit for Dodge's capture is due to Miss Rose Mc-Ginn of 238 Haight street, who put up a stubborn battle with the burglar when she discovered him in her mother's apartment and whose cries brought the assistance of the blues.

The burglar was first heard of as he was making his escape from the apartments of J. B. Irwin at 363 Page street.
Irwin saw the man jump from a rear window, and he promptly rushed into the street and notified Police Sergeant John Harley, whose whistle brought several other patrolmen and a patrol wagon from the Bush-street station.

You'll Never Know Until You Try Me

You will never know whether "painless dentistry" is a positive fact or merely a meaningless term until you give me a trial. I cannot convince you that Tetrasthesia does away with the tortures of the dental chair if you refuse to come and make an investigation. All I ask is an opportunity to show you the evidence and then let you judge for yourself.

I have the largest dental practice in this city, not only for the reason that my operations are free from pain, but because I do good work and back it up with an iron-clad guarantee of satisfaction.

The first thing to consider in selecting a dentist is his reliability. You wouldn't take chances with a dentist of the fly-by-night variety, who is here today and gone tomorrow. You want a dentist you can trust—one who is conscientious, careful and anxious to build up his practice by pleasing his patrons.
That's the kind of a dentist I am.

My business has been established here for many years, my home is here, and this is where I expect to spend the remainder of my life. You can see that it is to my best interests to make a satisfied customer of every person who comes to me for dentistry.

All the dental work done in my offices is performed without pain. If you come to me to have a tender tooth pulled, crowned or extracted, you will not be made to suffer the least bit from the moment you seat yourself in my chair until you leave it. If there is a nerve to be removed from a bad tooth, or if there is any grinding or boring to be done, you will find that my special method gives you complete immunity from pain.

I can perform every operation known to the science of dentistry better than it could be done under the old painful system. I can replace missing teeth by the Rex Alveolar system without using partial plates or bridge-work, when there are two or three good natural teeth remaining in the jaws. For the person who has lost ALL of his teeth, there is nothing better than my Flatoid metal plate—the lightest, strongest and most perfect fitting plate made.

Don't delay another day if your teeth are in need of attention. You can save money by having them fixed now. Call and see samples of my work. No charges for examinations and estimates. Consultation free to all. Hours, 10 to 12; Sundays, 10 to 12.
If you can't call, write today for my Free Book on Teeth.

PRICE PROBE ON, BUT EGGS SOAR

"Selected" Go Up to 52 Cents;
Must Be Under a Week Old.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 4.—In face of the fact that agents of the department of justice are here to investigate the cause of the high price of eggs, quotations for "selected" as the Pittsburgh
Butter and Egg Exchange term them, were advanced today from 45 and 46 cents to 50 and 52 cents a dozen. Dealers declare this is because eggs, to bear the name of "selected" must not be more than a week old. Alleged price-fixing by the exchange is one of the things the government is investigating.

CHILDREN BOYCOTTERS.

His schools have joined Chicago women club members in the egg boycott, by was said there were many signers and that more pledges will be circulated today in other schools of the city. There was a drop of one cent in the price of eggs on the Chicago Butter and Egg board yesterday.

tional egg boycott. If patrons of hotels and restaurants will aid the whole situation will soon be changed."

duce the price of eggs will be urged at a

Acres; Big Reclamation Project.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 4.—The sale of approximately 47,000 acres of land in the Imperial valley by the Southern Pacific Land Company to the California Land and Water company, at a price stated to be close to $2,000,000, is announced.

Irrigation canals from the main Imperial valley system have been nearly completed, and it is expected the deal will open up some 90,000 acres for re-alternate sections, government entry-men owning the rest.

The land lies between the eastern edge of the cultivated section of the Imperial valley and the main line of the Southern Pacific. The purchasing syndicate is made up of southern

Responsibility for Cubist Art Fixed; Indian Did It

CARLISLE, Pa., Dec. 4.—Credit on responsibility for the origination of cubist art is claimed for the American Indian by Lone Star, art instructor in the United States Indian service, who is stationed here.
Lone Star, with his wife, Angel Decora, a beautiful Winnebago Indian girl, who is also an artist, has devoted many years to the study and collection of Indian art specimens and they have many examples to substantiate their assertion that the Indians founded the cubist school some 200 years ago.
The eagle, which is a common figure in Indian art specimens, is but a square which is shaped totally unlike an eagle, yet immediately impresses the observer with the conviction that it is an eagle.
This, declares Lone Star, is the height of the cubist art.

REVENUE CUTTERS TO PATROL COAST

Fleet of Little Vessels Start on Mission of Aiding Ships.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Between now and April 1 a score of the little vessels of the Revenue Cutter Service will patrol the waters along the American shores to be ready to aid the men "who go down in ships."

These vessels have started on their winter cruise when their services are most needed. Soon others will start on the American patrol to warn the great Atlantic line of the approach of dangerous icebergs and fogs.
By proclamation of President Wilson,
these vessels are sent out to assist ships in distress and to keep an ever-watchful eye on derelict that may drift into the steamer lanes. There they destroy.
Particularly are they told to listen always for the dreaded "S. O. S." wireless signal that comes from a vessel in dire distress. The vessels named by President Wilson on the Atlantic Coast are the Woodbury, Androscoggin, Gresham, Acushnet, Mohawk, Onondago, Apache, Pamlico, Itasca and Yamacraw.

JURY CONSIDERING GRAFT TESTIMONY

New York Highway Inquiry Is Likely to Result in Indictments.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—District Attorney Whitman submitted to a special grand jury today some of the testimony relative to alleged highway graft as adduced recently at the John Doe inquiry.
It was said that indictments were expected next week.

Three men in particular are concerned in the testimony. They are Everett Foller of Kingston, already indicted for ex-torption in getting a campaign contribution from a contractor, Arthur A. Mc-Lean, treasurer of the Democratic state committee, alleged to have received checks from corporations as campaign contributions and Thomas Hassett, formerly attached to the state engineer's office. Madison Aldrich, a Poughkeepsie contractor, swore on the stand that he had sold three acres of land to the state for $100,000, and that he had received payment due him (Aldrich) from the state.

CHIEF EMBRACES GENERAL WHEN NAVAJOS "QUIT"

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 4.— General Hugh L. Scott, who long-handedly quelled the incipient Indian uprising on the Navajo reservation, was here last night on his return to El Paso, where he will resume command of the Second cavalry division on the Mexican border. The eight renegade Indians whom General Scott induced to surrender after a earlier lasting thirty-six hours, made him an affectionate farewell at the county jail in Gallup. Back-to-the, the 70-year-old chief and leader of the recalcitrants, embraced the general, and each of the other prisoners in turn flocked to him. This was the Indian way of telling General Scott that he had won their respect. The Indians were taken to Santa Fe today, but because of the arduousness of their trip from the reservation, they being on the road for five days, Judge W. H. Pope of the federal district court continued their hearing until later in the week.

In the senior affairs of the John C. Fremont High School, Bertha Vanderbilt is playing an important part. In the dramatic and scholastic endeavors of the junior class the young student frequently served on committees. She was one of the officers during her third year, when she was appointed to act as one of the senators of the low junior class.
School spirit and loyalty in all the movements of the student body has been marked his term. At the class meetings the attendance has been splendid. The boys and girls have been interested in the athletic as well as the social affairs of the school.
Soccer has been one of the chief sports for the boys of the John C. Fremont High School, while the girls have enjoyed basketball.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stom- ach, Liver, Bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.
When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the fool, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. When his little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy, they know teamwork today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies,

ESTATE QUITS IN WAR AGAINST TAX

The Cohen Family of Alameda Drops Suit and Pays Electroliner Assessment.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 4. — The attack made by the Cohen estate against the electroliner assessment levied by the city council about a year ago has been abandoned and yesterday afternoon City Treasurer Oswald Lubbock received a check for $4572.83, covering the amount of taxes against the Cohen property, as well as a penalty of about $1000 for not paying the taxes when due. The check was forwarded by William H. Jordan, attorney for the Cohens.

The estate refused to pay the tax and took the matter to the superior court. Former City Attorney A. F. St. Sure represented the city and the court ruled in favor of the city. An appeal was not prepared to prepare the papers to fight the action.

The Cohens decided to withdraw their suit and sent the check. If the amount had not been paid by tomorrow 25 per cent would have been added.

The city council can now prepare to return the surplus taxes in the electroliner fund in District No. 8.

MR. AND MRS. WM. CLARKE HOWARD, HEROES OF AN ELOPEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Howard, elopers from Hayward, are in Oakland rejoicing in their escape from an elaborate marriage ceremony as planned by the mother of the bride, and, also, in the fact that they have been forgiven for their sudden trip from Hayward to Oakland, and the marriage by Justice of the Peace James C. Quinn.

The bride, who was Miss Irene Lund, daughter of Mrs. Nils Lund of Hayward, is at present at the home of relatives in East Oakland, but will soon leave with her husband for a tour of the east.

"Mother, we're married," was the first words spoken by the bride when she was taken to the altar by the justice of the peace.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nils Lund, and was attended by a large number of

FRANKLIN OWNER MAKES BIG TRIP

Washington to Southern California a Twelve-Day Auto Tour.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Coming in the nature of a surprise

when most motorists believed the roads in the north to be almost impassable on account of the recent heavy storms, is the report of a trip made by J. R. Mc-

Donald of Palouse, Wash., to Los Angeles in a Franklin Six car, according to a letter received this morning by John

F. McLaine, the Franklin car dealer in this territory.

"McDonald represents the Franklin car in Palouse," says McLaine. "He sold a Six-Thirty to Mr. and Mrs. J. A.

Miller, and as a condition of the sale

agreed, if they desired it, to drive them to Los Angeles in the car. They left

Palouse, going by way of the Dalles,

Ore., to Portland, Ore., where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Miller's son,

Norm Miller. They had no intention of making a record run in any way, but twelve days after their departure from

Palouse they arrived in Los Angeles,

having traveled a total distance of 1540 miles. During this distance chains were in use on the rear wheels approximately 400 miles. In spite of adverse road conditions encountered before the California territory was entered they were able to make the trip on an average of 17 miles per gallon of gasoline. For the same distance the trip was made averaging 125 miles per gallon of lubricating oil.

"A trip of this nature, during which it became necessary to use the intermediate gear for long distances through mud and up the heavy grades of the mountains, a fuel and oil record for a six-cylinder car of this nature is nothing short of phenomenal. It is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that four passengers, with baggage aggregating

several hundred pounds in weight additional, were carried.

One day, according to McDonald, during which they passed over the crest of the Sierrita mountains, the day's mileage being 104, they found that at the end of the journey they had used but five gallons and one quart of gasoline,

which figures out for that day's trip

almost exactly 20 miles per gallon of gasoline.

"It should be kept in mind that chains were necessary on this day's trip for between 20 and 25 miles. During this same day's trip an ascent of 4100 feet was made in a distance of two and three-four miles.

OUR TIRES THE BEST.

"The American automobile tire is entering the foreign market," says R. L.

can product. The mileage to be gained out of the American tires has proved in the United States their superiority over the foreign made product. While unquestionably the foreign product contains good material and is well constructed,

yet the foreign manufacturers lack that one great essential of construction, experience. The number of automobiles in use in the United States as compared with continental Europe shows the great discrepancy. That is the greater number of users of motor cars in the United States collectively as against those abroad."

The Oakland-Antioch.

An energetic move is on to secure the extension of the Oakland-Antioch electric line to Stockton. It will cross the delta, bringing that rich region into closer relations to Stockton and to Oakland as the termini. Mr. Borden and other enterprising land owners in the Delta are offering large sums to secure right of way and build the necessary bridges over the bayous of the Delta. When the road enters Stockton it will end in the business centers in front of the Hotel Stockton.

This extension brings into immediate focus the Oakland terminal. We need it downtown. We need it where it will be of the most value to us and where it will also best benefit the road itself.

What are we going to do about it? Are we going to sit still and pow-wow about San Francisco taking Hetchy water away from the irrigators, or the irrigators keeping it away from the precession of the equinoxes.

The Oakland-Antioch terminal is a present, living question. Let the Commercial Club or some other organization at once appoint a committee of level-headed, down-town business men to confer with the managers and engineers of the railroad. Let it find out what they want as to route and terminal facilities. Then let the committee open immediate negotiations with the city government to cover the extent of its powers in the matter and then, if there be differences, proceed to compromise or eliminate them. Let us get at work for just now there is no more important matter in sight for the best and most permanent interests of this city.

What are our commercial organizations for, if not for such work? The Stockton Chamber of Commerce, with its wide awake and energetic secretary, is on the job at that end, awake to the interests of the Slough City. Let us be doing likewise, and be doing it quickly.

It's a wise housewife who knows the price of an egg.

Records seem to show that many persons marry for the purpose of getting a divorce.

The Case of Mrs. Pankhurst.

There is something in the idea advanced by the women suffrage press bureau that Americans are by their actions justifying the Pankhurst plea for militancy and approving of the methods of the militants in England. This construction is that of an Eastern writer, who believes that Mrs. Pankhurst's cause is stronger in the United States than is suspected.

Many other writers have expressed the opinion that Mrs. Pankhurst made a hit here. It is recited that several thousand people paid at Madison Square Garden to hear Mrs. Pankhurst. She addressed great audiences at Chicago and elsewhere in the West and everywhere was received very cordially, greatly applauded and made much of.

On the other hand, says a circular of the bureau, Mrs. Henry Fawcett, at the head of the non-militant English suffrage movement, has an association of 73,000 members and yet few people in America even know her name and if she came here to get money by lecturing, she would meet only empty benches.

It is fair, then, to ask the question whether Americans are not actually justifying Mrs. Pankhurst, even though general public sentiment condemns the militant methods of English women.

May Be Boon for Growers.

Cold storage investigation by the United States government is next on the list. By cold storage it is, of course, meant the ice companies, for the ice trusts of the several states and territories are no more nor less than the majority of the cold storage men.

The recent high price of cold storage, as well as "ranch" eggs, is an example of the cold storage game of taking advantage of the market. In times when eggs are plentiful the storage companies buy in millions of them and pay as low as 10 cents per dozen. Here in California there are a number of storage plants, some very large ones in Sonoma county, that have thousands of dozens of eggs on hand for which they paid from 10 to 12 cents the dozen. These eggs have been selling retail for 45 cents and it is easy to note the immense profit there is in the business when it is taken into consideration that the amount of help required to run a cold storage plant is comparatively small and the cost of manufacturing ice exceedingly low in comparison to the prices asked for it and the benefits in a financial way derived from the use of it by the manufacturers.

Throughout the United States there are ice companies under many names, and in many instances these companies operate in defiance of the Sherman anti-trust act. They go under the name of consumers' associations and ice delivery companies. But the common source of supply is generally the plant operated by one favored corporation that controls the stock in all the rest of the subsidiaries. Companies operating and contracting in cities do so under the corporation names of consumers' associations in cities hundreds of miles from the source of supply, it is said. The cost of ice is placed at a price that allows something like 400 per cent profit on the investment. This estimate is subject to correction, as it is merely a preliminary statement by government investigators.

According to some of the reports, the charges are too high, and the growers complain that the charges are too high, and to the credit of the railroad, the lines seem to be making an earnest effort to have the cost of icing reduced. In this particular branch of the ice business the farmers of California and the orange growers certainly hope for relief. The action of the government of looking up the cold storage and ice businesses may be a boon that Western growers long and sincerely sought for.

THE REAL DICTATOR

RACE WITH A LUNATIC

In the days when I lived on the ranch I usually spent most of the winter in the east, and when I returned in the early spring I was always interested in finding out what had happened since my departure. On one occasion I was met by Bill Jones and Sylvane Ferris, and in the course of our conversation they mentioned "the lunatic." This led to a question on my part, and Sylvane began the story:

"Well, you see, he was on a train and he shot the newsboy. At first they were not going to do anything to him, for they thought he just had it in for the newsboy. But then somebody said, 'Why, he's plumb crazy, and he's liable to shoot any of us' and then they threw him off the train. It was here at Medora, and they asked if anybody would take care of him, and Bill Jones said he would, because he was the sheriff and the jail had two rooms, and he was living in one and would put the lunatic in the other."

Here Bill Jones interrupted: "Yes, and more fool me! I wouldn't take charge of another lunatic if the whole county asked me. Why? (with the air of a man announcing an astounding discovery), 'that lunatic didn't have his right senses! He wouldn't eat till me and Snyder got him down on the snarings and made him eat.' Snyder was a huge, happy-go-lucky, kind-hearted Pennsylvania Dutchman, and was Bill Jones' chief deputy. Bill continued:

"You know, Snyder's soft-hearted, he is. Well, he'd think that lunatic looked peaked, and he'd take him out for an airing. Then the boys would get Josh-ing him as to how much start he could give him over the prairie and catch him again." Apparently the amount of the start given the lunatic depended upon the amount of the bet to which the joshing led up. I asked Bill what he would have done if Snyder hadn't caught the lunatic. That was evidently a new idea, and he responded that Snyder always did catch him. "Well, but suppose Snyder hadn't caught him?" "Well," said Bill Jones, "if Snyder hadn't caught the lunatic, I'd have whaled—out of Snyder."

Under the circumstances, Snyder ran his best and always did catch the patient. It must not be gathered from this that the lunatic was badly treated. He was well treated. He became greatly attached to both Bill Jones and Snyder, and he objected strenuously when, after the frontier theory of treatment of the insane had received a full trial, he was finally sent off to the territorial capital. It was merely that the relations of life in that place and day were so managed as to give ample opportunity for the expression of individuality, whether in sheriff or ranchman. The local practical joker once attempted to have some fun at the expense of the lunatic, and Bill Jones described the result. "You know Bixby, don't you? Well, with deep disapproval, 'Bixby thinks he funny, he does. He'd come and he'd wake that lunatic up at night, and I'd have to get up and soothe him. I fixed Bixby all right, though. I fastened a rope on the latch, and next time Bixby came I let the lunatic out on him. He must hit Bixby's nose off. I learned Bixby."

SINGULAR THINGS

Much more money has been sent anonymously to the British government's conscience fund than to that of the American government. The first recorded payment of this kind was the sum of $1800, sent to Pitt in 1783, with a letter requesting him to apply the money "to the use of the state in such manner as the nation may not suffer by its having been detained from the public treasury. You are implored to do this for the sake of conscience to a honest man." Nearly every year since then the chancellor of the exchequer has received a certain amount of conscience money. In 1841 the chancellor received $70,000 from a person who stated that he had engaged in smuggling for many years, and that this sum represented all his profits therefrom. One year the conscience money forwarded by British taxpayers totaled $50,000.

The makers of billiard balls test the smoothness of the finished article by rubbing it against the cheek. Certain areas of the tongue are very sensitive to different flavors, while about an inch from the tip is a little patch which is the precise spot to dump objectionable medicine, for in that region the sense of taste is absent. If one marks on the biceps of the arm a little space, and test it with the warm head of a pin, some spots will feel just pressure, others warmth and pressure. And if one has a little red ink on the pin he can mark out just where these "warm spots" are. In fact, the cuticle seems a mosaic of "warm" and "cold" spots. And there is said to be a place above the knee where one can drive a pin without pain. Sir Edwin Landseer appears to have been one of the best examples of the unobtrusive person on record. In Mrs. Cowden Clark's "Reminiscences" she records her amazement at "Edwin Landseer's wonderful feat, when some one was talking of being able to write or draw with the left hand. Landseer remarked, 'I think I can not only draw with my left hand, but I can draw with both hands at once.' Whereupon he took up two pencils and actually drew a horse with one hand and a dog with the other at the same time."

We note, incidentally, that football players no longer compete with piano players in an effort to increase the world's visible supply of hair.

Cottons And Canned Goods

A trained economist traveled 32,000 miles, interviewing 1000 retail merchants, jobbers and manufacturers, and at the end of a year produced a 1000-page report on The Selling of Textiles.

Manufacturers of jewelry, shoes, food products, varnishes, pianos, hardware, whetstones, have pored for hours over this report, jotted down figures and conclusions, and then have gone away to straighten out kinks in their own selling plans.

Why should a report on TEXTILES be of such engrossing interest and service to a canner of foods, for example?

Because it necessarily bored into the very foundations of all American retailing and wholesaling.

This report is typical of the work of our Commercial Research Department. The duty of this Department is to supplement our thirty years of experience with an exact knowledge of today's trade conditions, markets, channels of distribution, costs, profits, methods, tendencies. The Department is now making an investigation of the conditions on the Pacific Coast of the automobile industry and of food products. It is conducted by expert investigators, who are not and never have been advertising men. It is entirely unbiased, interested only in facts to be used to the advantage of our clients.

It is in the same spirit that we maintain a bureau of statistics, a department for copy censorship, a force for the improvement of illustrations and typography, and other facilities for advising on general advertising problems.

The opportunities of the Pacific Coast for national publicity are vast. But they can be realized, and the handicaps overcome, only after conscientious study in the light of full and correct information.

HOW TO GROW LONG, BEAUTIFUL HAIR

By a Specialist.

It is not hard to stop the hair from falling out and promote its growth if the right means are used. There is no hope for the scalp where the hair roots are dead and the scalp is shiny. However, to those who have not reached this condition, immediate steps should be taken to stop it before it is too late. Here is a simple recipe which you can make at home, that will stop the hair from falling out, promote its growth and eradicate scalp eruptions and scalp humors. I know of cases where the hair has grown from four to five inches in a few months after using this simple recipe: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 3 oz. of glycerine, and apply to the hair, rubbing with the finger tips, two or three times a week. These ingredients can be obtained at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home. This recipe not only promotes the growth of the hair but makes it soft and glossy.

9000 Seek Jobs Under Mayor-Elect of N. Y.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—It is reported that 9000 applications for positions under the forthcoming administration of Mayor-elect John Purroy Mitchell have been filed at the city hall. "It reminds me," said Borough President George McAneny, "of the saying of President Hayes that Carl Schurz used to be fond of repeating: 'Every time you appoint a man to public office you make nine enemies and one ingrate.'"

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—The average price of $100 was paid for three paintings by David Teniers, the elder, of the Flemish school, at a sale of seventeenth century paintings at Leprie's room. The largest canvas, a landscape, brought $1200. Van de Veld's "Isiah" sold for $500, and a portrait by A. C. Van der Drecht school for the same price. Two landscapes by Sebastian Ricci, the Venetian, brought $1250.

Coffee Drinking

Coffee isn't a food. Anything not a food which is taken into the system makes the eliminative processes work overtime to throw it off. Often the unprofitable thing, when taken regularly, accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, and becomes a destroyer.

Besides, coffee contains caffeine, a subtle, poisonous drug—about 2½ grains to the cup. It is well-known that caffeine frequently causes heart trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness and biliousness—serious handicaps to progress and comfort.

If something is hindering your efforts, try the simple test of leaving off coffee ten days and using Postum.

If after a few days you begin to feel better—sleep well, nerves steady up and brain gets clear, you will know how to avoid that kind of trouble.

Postum, made only of prime wheat and a small percent of New Orleans molasses, is a pure food-drink—wholesome, nourishing and delicious. It is absolutely free from caffeine or any other drug.

Postum now comes in two forms.

Regular Postum—must be well boiled to bring out its delightful flavour and food value.

Instant Postum—(the new form)—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delicious beverage instantly. Add sugar and cream to taste.

WOULD WIPE RED ARMY OFF MAP

Commercial Club Blues, Seeking Members, Plan Fierce Campaign.

The impending battle between the Red and the Blue armies of the Oakland Commercial Club is liable to begin at any moment now, and while a truce has been declared until Monday or Tuesday, there have already been several skirmishes between outlying companies and a few new members for the Commercial Club taken in. General Frank W. Bilger and the Red army is advancing in open order and General Frank W. Leavitt of the Blues is drawing his forces into closer formation and is throwing up earthworks from will be made by guerrilla bands under the leadership of the more daring of his captains.

Today General Leavitt issued orders to his men that they must "wipe the Red army off the map." General Bilger refused to make any further statement than that he was "carefully standing by" the Red army and is holding hourly conferences with Robert A. Lee, chief of staff, and L. F. Moore, assistant chief of staff. Field telephones are being laid to all points along the battle front of the Red while the Blues' orders will be signalled by General Leavitt's headquarters by helicopter and wireless.

IRRIGATION RISES

Feeling between the two opponents is running so strong that General Leavitt yesterday refused to attend the noon conference luncheon at the Hotel Oakland for the purpose of discussing the rules which will govern the ten-day battle which will close the membership campaign of the Oakland Commercial Club to add 400 new members to the organization before it moves to new quarters on the seventh floor of the Hotel Oakland. Leavitt was represented by his chief of staff, Lewis S. Gear.

General Bilger was highly indignant because the conference was held in the "Blue" room of the Hotel Oakland.

Managing Director Joseph E. Caine of the Commercial Club was requested to act as mediator during the conference but refused flatly and the various representatives of the two armies wrangled across the luncheon table without interference.

Captain D. E. Perkins raised the question as to whether a new member secured for the club by two individuals should be credited as a half point to each individual.

This matter was discussed and it was finally decided that the "credit" belonged to the one who had first broached the subject of membership to the person captured and who still held his card as a prospect.

BILGER "MATCHES" WINS.

While A. S. Lavenson had been selected as a captain in the Blue army there was a question as to whether his name really belonged in the forces in question. This was compromised by General Bilger and the Blue Chief of Staff Lewis S. Gear "matching" for Lavenson, Bilger winning.

William W. White was claimed as a member of the Reds, but White jumped to his feet and declared that he would serve in no army but the Blue. It was only after considerable acrimonious discussion that White was allowed to join the Blues.

Tomorrow noon the opposing forces will meet again at luncheon and the final plans for the ten-day fight completed.

Announcement was made today that three more prizes had been offered in the membership campaign, these by the board of directors of the Commercial Club. A three-year membership will be given to the individual securing the largest number of new members, a two-year membership for the man coming second and a one-year membership for the third highest.

SEX LECTURE TO BE FOR PUBLIC

Melrose Civic Center Invites Women's Clubs to Attend Hygiene Talk.

MELROSE, Dec. 4.—The Melrose Civic Center has decided that its meeting in the Melrose school Wednesday afternoon, December 10, to hear Rabbi Martin Meyer speak on the subject of "Sex Hygiene in Schools," shall be open to the public. The invitation will be sent to women's clubs in Oakland and other towns to send representatives to the meeting, which may have an important bearing on the question of teaching sex hygiene in schools.

Rabbi Meyer will be given a reception by the Melrose Center after his address when he will meet with the members. He is an authority on the subject of sex hygiene and an instructive and enlightening talk is looked for.

"We are desirous that the meeting to hear Rabbi Meyer shall be a representative one and all who are interested in this question affecting the welfare of our children are invited to attend," said Mrs. George Ingraham, who is on the committee which is arranging the meeting. Others on the committee are Mrs. George Boyson, Mrs. L. H. Lahr and Mrs. R. O'Neill. Mrs. A. C. Christensen, president of Melrose Civic Center, will preside over the meeting.

SEATTLE MAN RUN DOWN AND FATALLY INJURED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—William S. Bell of 7324 Natoma street, who recently came here from Seattle, was found fatally injured this morning when he was run down by a taxicab, which in turn had been struck by a street car near the Ferry. Bell stepped almost directly in front of a Valencia street car just as Edward Doherty came along, running on a parallel. Bell became confused, and in an effort to avoid hitting him, Doherty turned in front of the car. The two vehicles crashed and Bell was struck and run down. He received multiple lacerated wounds of the chest and possible fracture of the skull.

PRENDERGAST WITHDRAWS FROM CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—William A. Prendergast, controller of New York, formally announced his withdrawal today from the Progressive party, which he helped to found.

"I consider," his statement says, "that the result of the presidential election made it evident that the third party idea was not acceptable to the American people, and that the continuation of a third party movement could have no other effect than the permanent success of the Democratic party."

SEKES STRIKE SETTLEMENT

DENVER, Dec. 4.—Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson today held a conference with representatives of the Colorado coal operators in an effort to bring about a resumption of their meeting with strikers. It was expected that if the operators agreed to continue peace negotiations, the secretary of labor would ask leaders of the strikers to make a similar agreement.

PASTOR'S WIFE'S GONE WITH CHILD

Flees in Auto After Telling the District Attorney of Marital Troubles.

WOODLAND, Dec. 4.—Following financial troubles and a consequent bitter dispute with the church officers, Rev. Edward J. Baird, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Woodland, is now accused of brutal treatment by his wife, following her charges, took her young daughter and fled in an automobile yesterday. It is believed that she has gone to join her parents in Oklahoma City. Her flight was assisted by Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Lawhead, who took her in their automobile to Davis, where she boarded a train, en route leaving she intended to leave her husband that they had quarreled over the custody of their child, and threatened to kill the child rather than have it live with the mother. "He is a brute," she declared, "and I cannot live with him."

Baird denies her charges, declaring that she was hysterical, owing to a recent illness. "My wife and I will not separate," he stated. "She is under a great mental strain on account of a recent illness. It is absurd to say that I threatened to kill my angel child."

Baird is a large, athletic man. He first leaped into motortown when at a meeting of the church trustees, where he was verbally attacked, he declared, and elected an attorney from the nearby town. The church trustees have started legal action aiming to force him into giving up certain property held by him, which they claim is owned by the church. The actions were in court for hearing today.

Yesterday the pastor strode the front of the rectory awaiting his wife's return, frowning and making impatient gestures. He believed that she was out shopping. When told that she had fled he laid the whole matter to hysterics.

A wordy war with Bishop W. E. Mordecai, head of the diocese of Northern California. The bishop had been appealed to in the Woodland matter, and was accused of partisanship by the pastor. The dispute will probably be settled through today's court action.

LOST MEMORY DEFENSE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The prosecution called several witnesses today in the case of Arthur J. Coulson, whose trial for murder is being held in Superior Judge Dunne's court, today. Coulson wounded his affinity, Mrs. Katherine Gallagher, it is alleged, and then shot and killed William Acker, a chauffeur, and George Kovach, an automobile washer.

Will plead lapse of memory, declaring that his mind is a blank as to every feature of the tragedy. The shooting occurred September 19, at the Atlas garage, 70 Oak street, immediately after Mrs. Gallagher had returned in Acker's auto following a joy ride to the beach.

HETCH HETCHY IN SENATE DEBATE

Senator Thompson of Kansas Delivers Speech Urging Support of Measure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Consideration of the bill to allow San Francisco to take a water supply from the Hetch Hetchy valley was resumed in the Senate today with Senator Thompson of Kansas delivering a speech in support of the measure. More petitions and telegrams, appealing and supporting the bill were presented by Senators.

One telegram presented by Senator Works purported to show that Oakland and some cities on the San Francisco bay which are to be included in the Hetch Hetchy plan were Senator Thompson declared that the Hetch Hetchy scheme was the most feasible plan proposed. He cited at length the objection urged by opponents of the bill that construction of a dam in the Hetch Hetchy valley would spoil the natural beauty of the spot.

"But even if it did destroy the natural park," said Senator Thompson, "for a considerable portion of it, and this water was necessary to supply the needs of the people of California residing in the vicinity, it would be better to destroy it, for human consumption is the highest use to which a supply of water could possibly be put."

FOOTPADS ASSAULT AND ROB 2 VICTIMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Footpads were again in evidence in the south of Market section early this morning, and two serious robberies were reported to the police. Herman Curfuh of Portland, Oregon, who is stopping at the Humboldt House, was shot by highwaymen at Fourth and Howard streets. The thugs had a bandanna handkerchief covering their faces. Both presented revolvers at Curfuh's head and forced him to hand over a purse containing $24.50.

Michaela Nichol, who lives at the De Martini hotel, San Mateo, was the second victim. She was on a Fifth street near Mission at 3:30 a. m. when a man asked him for a match. He reached for it and was knocked down. Two other men ran up and he was searched, the robbers taking $15 and a watch.

Following the performance there will be cards in the reception rooms and dancing in the ballroom for those who prefer that diversion. Light refreshments will be served in the banquet hall upstairs. For this evening, members have been allowed three guest cards and a large attendance is expected.

THEFT IS PREVENTED

Wrapped in a newspaper on his dining room table, Milton Glaze, 1961 Harrington avenue, last night found his jewelry and silverware packed ready to be moved from the place. He heard a movement in the house as he entered and running to the front door he saw a man leap the fence and disappear in the darkness running down the street. The man had entered the front door with a key and had been dropping from the window.

Glaze notified the police and a posse was sent out to search the neighborhood. They found no trace of the burglar.

ITHACA, Dec. 4.—Austin G. Parker, editor of the Cornell Widow, a magazine published by students, and Archibald M. Johnston of Pittsburg, artist for the publication, have been dropped temporarily from the university. The faculty committee on student affairs decided that Parker, a senior, should be suspended until next September and Johnston, a sophomore, until next September. U. and some women's organizations and certain elderly members of the faculty.

CLERGYMEN AT WORK ON FARMMinisters Taking Stiff Agriculture Course at Davis School.

DAVIS, Cal., Dec. 4.—The University State Farm here is overrun with clergymen from all parts of the state. There are 430 ministers of the gospel, doctors of divinity, preachers of all ages and extensive experience from all parts of this country and in foreign missionary fields, and they are all studying farming.

Recently the state invited the ministers to visit the school for a week to get in real touch with the "back to the soil movement," and the ministers are making the best and the most of it.

Neither the farm school dormitories nor the city hotels have room to accommodate the ministers, so eight Pullman cars are

The ministers are the most apt pupils that the faculty members at Davis have ever encountered. They are devouring every crust of agricultural information in sight. They work fourteen hours a day, and the teachers are already beginning to show the effect of the hot pace.

Disinfect old clergymen, who have never worn any other outer garments than Prince Albert coats and black trousers for the last twenty or thirty years, are packing the university farm in blue overalls and straw hats. They are plowing twice a day, studying soils, climbing trees to learn how to prune, studying the scientific aspects of fattening hogs, learning how to feed calves and entice hens to lay eggs. The ministers are up with the dawn, arousing the roosters and worrying the stock into action for the day.

Breakfast is served for the clergymen at 6:30 o'clock and by 8 o'clock the first lecture is being delivered. Then follow demonstrations of all sorts, from picking olives to butter and cheese making. Tuesday night addresses were delivered by Dean Thomas Forsyth Hunt, William D. McEae and Robert Newton Lynch of the California Development Board; Dean Hunt, H. J. Webster, Dr. Warren H. Wilson and Prof. C. H. Parker will speak tonight.

GRIZZLY BEAR CAUGHT IN THE "MOVIE" FILM

CHICO, Dec. 4.—H. V. Vannice and E. Smith, local motion picture men, who have been trying to get films of grizzlies in action in the Coast Range mountains, had a narrow escape from being burned to death Saturday night. While their two companions were endeavoring to round up the bears, Vannice and Smith went to sleep near the camp fire. They rolled into the fire and were burned about the feet. The bear trailers arrived just in time to save them from possible death. The picture men succeeded in getting some good records of the forest monarchs in action.

FORMER MAYOR WILL AGAIN TAKE OFFICE

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 4.—By nearly double the majority given to any other candidate for mayor of Santa Monica, former Mayor T. H. Dudley has been chosen to serve for the ensuing two years. He polled more than 900 more votes than his opponent, Mayor R. H. Dow. The Sunday closing ordinance was defeated by a majority of 155. By the same majority E. A. Murray was re-elected city clerk, defeating M. H. Wagar. Fred H. Stockwell was chosen city assessor, winning the office from C. S. Dales, who had held it for more than 20 years.

When Is Locomotive (or Beefsteak) Tender? Hands Up!

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—When is a locomotive tender not a tender and when does it become a plain car? Should the locomotive end of the tender be considered a car just as the far end has been so considered, or is the entire tender a tender only? These are interesting questions that have been brought to the supreme court for decision.

The courts already have held that the far end of the tender is a car within the meaning of the safety appliance act, requiring the use of automatic couplers between cars and locomotives. Upon the decision in the present case depends whether Mrs. Mary C. Pennell, widow of Jay A. Pennell, will recover from the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company for his death.

Pennell was killed when the air brakes on a train on which he was traveling accidentally set, breaking coupler between the locomotive and tender.

$100,000,000 TOTAL OF SUGAR DAMAGE SUITS

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—With the filing in federal court here today of 58 suits against the American Sugar Refining Company, asking $33,879,397 damages under the Sherman law, the total number of cases brought here within the last two weeks against the big sugar corporation was increased to 180, making damages aggregating more than $100,000,000.

The actions brought today are almost identical with the first suits filed two weeks ago by Wogan Brothers, Ltd., charging the American company with being a monopoly and with having manipulated the sugar market to the detriment of the complainants, all of whom are Louisiana sugar planters, manufacturers or dealers.

According to one of the lawyers interested in the litigation, the sudden rush to file suits against the American company was due to the fact that the statute of limitations was expected to expire today.

MOUSTACHE IS BADGE OF REAL MAN; KAISER

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—"Every real man wears a moustache" is said to be the Kaiser's remark on the subject of the newest fad of Germans, both officers and civilians shaving the face smooth in the American style. The emperor expressed the wish that the army officers should continue to wear the moustache. No order on the subject has yet been issued, but the emperor's views have been communicated to the officers of his immediate entourage.

NOT BEYOND HELP AT 87.

Stomach-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St., Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case of kidney and bladder trouble." Elderly people will find Foley Kidney Pills both tonic and strengthening, and may be sure they contain no harmful drugs. Drug Department, Kahn's.

NEW SECRETARY TO LEAVE FOR POSTW. T. Denison, Philippine Interior Official, in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Winfred T. Denison, the new secretary of the interior of the Philippine government, nominated by President Wilson to succeed Dean C. Worcester, arrived in this city Tuesday night, en route to Manila, but he did not sail on the steamer Niles yesterday, as originally planned, because his confirmation by the United States senate did not come as early as was expected.

Denison said the senate was delaying action in his case because of the absence from Washington of Senator O'Gorman of New York, from which state he was appointed. He expects news of his confirmation within the next few days and steamer next after the Niles. Denison has resigned his office of Assistant Attorney general. He has been connected with the department of justice for several years—as assistant district attorney in New York under Roosevelt and assistant attorney general under Taft. He is a native of Maine and a graduate of Harvard.

Denison said that the secretary of war had expressed the desire that he sail for the Philippines as early as possible, as the only American member of the Philippine commission now present at Manila is Governor-General Harrison. Hence he had come to San Francisco expecting the news of his confirmation would be awaiting him here. He has said hundreds of hypothetical "goodbyes" throughout New England and New York. He held a conference yesterday with President Moore in the 1915 exposition regarding the Philippine exhibit.

BUILDER OF WARSHIP NEBRASKA IS DEAD

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 4.—Lieutenant Thomas F. Ruhm, U. S. N., the naval constructor who supervised the building in a Seattle shipyard of the battleship Nebraska, died at a hospital here last night from the effects of an operation performed a week ago. Lieutenant Ruhm, who was 44 years of age, was granted a leave of absence from his post at the Mare Island navy yard several weeks ago to visit friends in Seattle, and while here was taken ill. He was graduated from Annapolis naval academy in 1890 and studied naval architecture two years in Glasgow. Most of his time since his return to the United States was spent in Pacific coast yards. He was a native of Tennessee, where most of his relatives reside.

BANKER TO OUTLINE THE PROPOSED CURRENCY LAW

Frank C. Mortimer, cashier of the First National Bank of Berkeley, will be the speaker at next Thursday night's meeting of the Manufacturers' Committee, which is to be held in the Chamber of Commerce building. He will outline the salient features of the new currency bill and speak particularly on its effect on manufacturing interests. Today the committee met for its weekly luncheon at Kessler's Cafe. Several matters of interest were informally discussed.

Mortimer's address is fraught with considerable interest to all who follow financial affairs, and on this account the committee has decided to throw it open to the public. The announcement was therefore made this morning that the public has been invited to the affair.

SAN JOAQUIN MAY BUY HIGHWAY BONDS

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—The supervisors, acting on a request from the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, set December 13 for hearing the wishes of the various sections of the county relative to the state highway route. As the supervisors probably will finance the sale of state highway bonds in order to obtain state roads, it is probable that they will also determine what routes should be selected and make recommendations to the state highway commission. The San Joaquin highway commission, which built 238 miles of improved highway since 1908, at a cost of about $2,500,000, is now practically a thing of the past. It closed its active payroll yesterday.

PIERCE TO TAKE BIG OUTPUT OF FACTORY

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—J. M. C. Pierce. This means that the selling force maintained by the company will be discontinued. Eddy, who has been acting as general sales manager, will sever his connection with the plant, but will retain his stock in the company, which will devote itself entirely to the canning of beans, which Pierce will market.

TEN MINUTES' TIME TAKEN FOR SENTENCES

REDWOOD CITY, Dec. 4.—The criminal department of the superior court of San Mateo county disposed of four felony cases in 10 minutes yesterday, establishing a new record for efficiency and expediency. Superior Judge George Buck released Otto Zoellner, a married man of San Mateo, who eloped with an Oakland girl, on probation. Martin Galvan, a burglar, was also released on probation. E. C. Lewis, a "gentleman crook," was sentenced to serve two years in San Quentin for passing fictitious checks in San Mateo, after he had entered a plea of guilty.

AVIATORS TO FLY OVER OCEAN NEXT SPRING

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—"The trans-Atlantic aeroplane flight will probably be undertaken next spring," said Glenn H. Curtiss, who with his wife and son sailed yesterday on La Lorraine to make the flight, but will not himself take part in it. I have hundreds of letters from aviators who are willing to attempt the feat, and one of these will undoubtedly start next spring.

MARINE CORPS FULL; OAKLAND GETS OFFICE

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 4.—Upon orders from Lieutenant Ross E. Rowe of San Francisco, the United States marine recruiting station in Sacramento was closed yesterday. The reason given is that the corps is fully recruited. Sergeant E. B. Clark will open a recruiting office in Oakland for enlistments only.

"SPOONVILLE" TO GO OFF THE POSTOFFICE MAP

OROVILLE, Dec. 4.—The people of Spoonville, in Lassen county, are at last to be relieved of a name to which they have objected for many years. The joshing to which the name has been subjected has led to various attempts to induce the postoffice department to change the name of the postoffice, which would carry with it a change of the name of the settlement. A letter received yesterday from Daniel O. Roper, first assistant postmaster general, states that hereafter Spoonville is to be known as Edgemont. The entire population is rejoicing.

Quick Action Prescription Cures Colds in a Day

The best and quickest prescription known to medical science for colds and coughs is as follows: From your druggist get two ounces of Globex and half an ounce of Globex Compound (Concentrated Pine). Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake it well. Take one to two teaspoonsful after each meal and at bed time. Smaller doses to children according to age. Be sure to get only the genuine Globex Compound (Concentrated Pine). Each half ounce bottle comes in a tin screwtop sealed case. Any druggist has it on hand or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. There are many cheaper preparations, but it don't pay to experiment. This treatment is certain. This has been published here for six winters. Published by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago.

TRAINING OF FOOTBALL ELEVEN COSTS LARGE FORTUNE

POLO TOURNAMENT WITH ENGLAND NEXT YEAR ALMOST SURE

Estimated That More Than $1000 Is Required to Put Each Man on Field.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 4.—Harvard developed her football stars this year at a cost of $1000 each. Football, like everything else, has increased in cost, and the appearance of eleven well conditioned, strong, and fast players on the field against Princeton and Yale for the championship represented an outlay for more than $1000. Football championships come high in price, and to retain their title the Crimson employed the best coaches obtainable, at a fat salary.

The entire coaching staff this season costs about $1500, and this must be added to the cost of the players.

Harvard with her big outlay of money, has a big more extravagant than other leading colleges. Princeton, Yale, Penn and Dartmouth annually spend fortunes on their teams, but the Crimson's list of expenses, showing the costliness of the game, is the longest.

At the start of the playing season more than 200 youngsters were on the list of players. The list was reduced to 25 by the time the season was over.

Each player is given a uniform, shoes and socks. Gradually the weaker men were weeded out and a regular squad of about thirty established.

The greatest item of expense, however, is the coaching staff. Head Coach Perry, assistant coaches, and the entire staff of Harvard cost about $1500 a year, which means about nine weeks of work. Haughton's contract, under which he is not employed for less than $1500 for a term of three years. An additional sum of $10,000 for the same period has been guaranteed by prominent alumni, which brings his total remuneration to about $2400 a season.

The celebrated coach is on the field about two and a half hours daily for five days. Roughly estimated his total income from football amounts to $1500. Drawing the scale a little higher, Haughton receives about the same every second for five days. The Harvard players the proper lack of practice their own training.

Coach Haughton watched each game from the sidelines, many times giving orders to his charges, but this time is not allowed to interfere with the game.

Approximately the entire Harvard coaching staff costs nearly $1500 a year. Leo Leary, first assistant coach, who directs the practice and supervises the training of the players, receives $1000 a year. The remaining coaches, Lathrop, Warrington, Bob Fisher, Perry, Parmenter, Dick Wiggins, and the rest, receive from $500 to $1000 a year.

Who come to Cambridge 12 weeks at a time in the playing season, receive moderate sums for their services.

Paul Warrington, who is assistant graduate manager, receives $1000 a year. The entire coaching staff of Harvard costs about $1500 a year.

While football is a very expensive sport, it is a good investment. The latest report of the graduate manager showed that the football season of 1912 had total receipts of $12,000, showing a net profit of $30,000, a sum that was sufficient to pay the expenses of the team for the next year, except baseball, which like football is self-sustaining.

BRENNER SAYS G. O. P. SURVIVES

Abandonment by Governor Johnson Elicits Statement from Chairman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—"Founded on principle, not the ambition of any man, the Republican party will survive its formal abandonment by Governor Johnson," said Gustave Brenner, chairman of the regular Republican state central committee today.

Alluding to the convention called by the Governor for the formal organization of the Progressive party in California, Mr. Brenner said:

"Every honest man and woman must welcome the governor's promise finally to abandon the party as he long since abandoned the faith of the Republican party."

"Redemption of that promise will be especially welcome to the thousands of men and women who have followed the party since its formation."

There is no difficulty in fixing the responsibility of the California free trade votes in the national house of representatives and for the enactment of tariff laws seriously crippling the industries.

"Redemption of that promise can be no less welcome to the 35,000 earnest Republican men and women who are refusing to desert the candidacy of the progressive movement."

La Follette had their organization taken from them; nor to the Republicans of California who were denied the right to vote for the candidates and policies of their national party.

"Governor Johnson leaves a scuttled, not a broken ship. Its keel is laid in principle. Its timbers are the record of the nation's humanitarian, governmental and commercial accomplishments for more than half a century."

They cannot wreck it. The Republican party in California can not be dumped on the shore and dismantled at a wave of the master hand as was the La Follette organization in this state.

"The Republican party in California is in the nation, in the course of genuine progressivism and applied prosperity. It is going ahead with clean, capable Republicans, chosen by Republicans of every post; men who all their lives have fought bossism in and out of the party organization."

California's industries and California's people through the seizure and retention of the party organization which those responsible for these conditions, have now finally decided to abandon."

CUMMINS BRANDS CROCUS UNFAIR

Legislators in Heated Argument Over Currency Bill and Its Delays.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Charges by Senator Cummins that the Democrats had appropriated "dangerously near a conspiracy against the rights of all the people" in taking caucus action on the currency bill, marked the opening of today's session of the Senate.

"This bill has been considered elsewhere and passed adversely," he said. "There will be no real debate in this chamber; it will be simply a farce. I hesitate to participate in it, for I do not want to give it, before the country, the color of actual deliberation."

Senator Lewis retorted that Senator Cummins had sanctioned similar caucus methods while Governor of Iowa, but Cummins denied it.

Senator Cummins declared that Democrats were absconding themselves from the chamber and that all addresses were being made to "empty seats."

Senator Cummins declared that the President had gone abroad that President Wilson had exerted undue "influence" in Congress in the currency matter.

"The President," said Senator Reed emphatically, "has never attempted to coax or coerce congress into passing any particular bill. I entirely deny that the President had gone a hair's breadth beyond the performance of his constitutional duty."

Senator Morris, Republican, declared the situation showed the need of a cloture rule. He attacked the caucus. "With every fundamental principle which the President laid down in his message I am in hearty accord," he said, "but under the caucus system, I will have no opportunity for the kind of a discussion which should carry out those principles. Practically every senator on this side of the chamber is in a similar position as to some one or more of the President's recommendations."

INVESTIGATE ESCAPE FROM COUNTY JAIL

James France, a negro who is serving a term in Folsom prison for burglary, was the witness called by the district attorney this morning during his investigation of charges against B. P. Bull, former counsel in the county jail, that he had something to do with the escape of Robert Bradley and Robert Graham from that institution on September 1 last.

Attorney T. L. Clark, who represented Bradley during his arraignment and subsequent trial, was called by the district attorney to testify during the investigation.

The presence of a mysterious stranger about the jail excited considerable comment this morning. He left after members of the grand jury had gone from the jail following the adjournment.

District Attorney Clark stated at noon that in all probability the investigation would not be concluded until late today. It is possible that another day may be required for the inquisitorial body to decide whether or not to return an indictment.

France, one of the principal witnesses, was brought from Folsom last night. A man of about 35 years, dark complexion, brown eyes, was to Folsom and interviewed France, obtaining his promise that he would appear before the grand jury and tell some of the things he saw and heard about the county jail previous to the escape of Bradley and Graham. As he was not in any way an accomplice, the authorities state, his testimony will be very material.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

To certainly give most anything to be able to put on a few pounds and stay that way, declares every medical man and woman. Such result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of malnutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of retreating into the blood all the fat and flesh which they pass from the body as waste. To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal amount of fat the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strengthening fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with every meal, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect will be felt in a few days.

ENGLISH WOMEN

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1919, by Lillian Russell.)

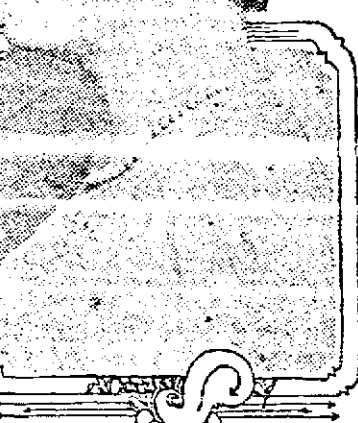

It is often said English women have big feet, but from my observation I have discovered their feet are no larger than those of our own country women. They do look a little larger from the fact they wear more comfortable shoes in the street. But when one observes the well-dressed English woman in evening dress one will find her feet trim and small, especially at the present day when our American shoe makers are in evidence on every principal business street in London.

English women are greatly misunderstood by people of other nations. It is generally conceded they are reserved, and many people take that for stupidity. It is compared with the spirit and dash of American women and the chic of French women. But they are far from stupid. They have stored up in their minds at least a knowledge of their own country. They can give you correct information of their government politics. They can tell you where to find the art galleries and what is to be seen at each of them. They can tell you where the best athletic games are played and how to get to them. In fact, they keep abreast of the times and are fortified with a fund of knowledge which they generally bestow upon you for the asking. Few American women can boast of so much knowledge.

English women, as a class, do not dress well. They do look smart in tailored clothes, but in afternoon dress, as we see them in the fashionable tearooms of the fine hotels, they cannot compare with their foreign sisters. They do not dress their hair well nor wear smart hats. They are always overdone. If it is smart, as it is at the present day, to wear a great deal of tulle trimming upon hats, they will wear too wide a brim and too many hanging things. Severity and simplicity of fashions seem to prevail now. The well-dressed woman wears small silk or satin hats with a tulle bow or a single flower or feather, a one-piece dress of black or some dark colored satin or chamoise made with long lines and close fitting. We see no transparent clothes in England. They seem to be affected by American lines. The corridors of the hotels are filled with Americans, and you can depend upon it when you see a smartly dressed woman almost anywhere she is an American.

The home life of English women is charming. Woman is hostess in her own house, and almost every one lives in a house of some sort. There are few apartments in England. House rents are so cheap that homes are within the reach of almost every one.

Answers to Queries

MRS. J. E. S.—I will be glad to send you the French tonic for eye-brows, which stimulates their growth and darkens them. If you will write me again asking for it, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

EVA—In six weeks time there ought to be some sign of the eyelashes becoming thicker and longer. However, I would not stop the treatment. Winter weather is hard on the complexion and the skin. I will be glad to send you a skin food which if applied before going out will prevent this trouble. If you will write me again, asking for it, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply. Have you ever tried waving your hair and parting it on the side, letting it fall loosely over the ears? It would probably look well on you done in a knot low in the neck.

HOW TO BE POPULAR

By DORIS BLAKE.

"WHY is it Miss E.—has such a good time as I do? What is the knack that some people have of being popular? These are questions often asked me.

There isn't a healthy minded girl living who does not wish to be popular. I have heard a popular girl being defined recently as "one who is generous and kindly in her heart, but not in herself." And a pretty good definition it is!

The most popular girl is the girl who is interested in things outside her personal affairs, the girl who has a sympathetic appreciation of the feelings of others.

The girl who is popular with boys is the enthusiastic, spontaneous, affectionate girl. By this I do not mean vulgarity or familiarity in thought or manner, but the girl who meets half way topics in which a boy is interested, who is ready to laugh at a joke and take one on herself.

But the girl with whom men are most apt to fall in love is she of the charming manners, of quick sympathy and tact. She is not inevitably the beauty or the belle. But she has "something" indefinable that quietly and insidiously wins hearts.

The secret of the success of the most popular girl I ever knew was entirely that of good manners. She was not pretty and she had no money, but she had more admirers than any other girl in the town in which she lived. Her manners were of the winning kind. If she passed some one she knew she bowed as though the person she was bowing to were the one of all the world she was most glad to see. Her hands were always warm. She had a good memory for faces and never forgot a name. She showed no jealousy of prettier girls. She was incapable of meanness. She was always so kindly that she looked happy and every one was glad to meet her. Her appreciation of other people's feelings was outdone only by her forgetfulness of her own.

If you would be popular, cultivate happiness. Enjoy everything. Enjoy every moment, every second, every bit of life as it comes, and don't try to pretend you are blase.

Fine and gracious manners do not come from boarding schools and French dancing masters. They come from wide sympathies and a loving knowledge of human nature in all its varied types.

WANTS HIS LOVE BACK.
"Dear Miss Blake: I am 21, deeply in love with a young man named Carl, who is 18. I have gone with him for the last two years and he called to see me every Sunday, but lately he calls only once a month. Can you tell me how I can win his love back?" AGNES.

If he has stopped calling for you, you don't want to try to awaken any affection in his heart for you, do you? And it looks as though he had. Perhaps he hasn't as much time as he used to have. You can't force love, Agnes.

WHAT IS GODD CONVERSATION.

"Dear Miss Blake: My friend and I have had a discussion about what you suggest as a good subject for conversation between a young man and a newly met girl friend during a dance that they are participating in."

Have you friends or interests in common that you can discuss? If you have attended the same school, your school affairs will offer a fund of conversation. Or you might discuss some interesting topics that the newspapers are discussing.

"HE IS NICE."

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a girl of 16. There is a fellow of 17 who wishes to accompany me, but he is afraid to ask me to go along, for fear I should say 'No.' What can I do to show I will accept his company? He is nice. He has lived here since April. He always speaks when I meet him."

Have you properly ask him to call upon you sometime. That will give him an opportunity to invite you to accompany him to the theater or to some lecture or to a party, and so on. If you are willing to accept his attentions.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am writing to you for advice. There was a fellow who was about six months ago and he gave me a lock and many other nice presents. He asked me to marry him and I refused. I said I was too young. He was afraid I was trying to hurt his feelings. Later he made him quit and afterward he asked me for the lock and ring. I offered him everything he had given me, but he wouldn't take anything but those. I would never wear the bracelet he gave me. Now he is married. You know he wanted to marry me, or he would not have married so quick. Do you think I should wear the ring and the bracelet he gave me? He is now 17. I am 16. I would not be doing right to wear the ring and the bracelet. You should have returned everything to him in spite of his refusal to take it. You and I in the future do not accept presents of that sort from a young man unless you are engaged to be married to him. The young man probably was very fond of you, and tried to show his affection by presenting you with handsome gifts."

HE IS WEALTHY.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am in a deep study and don't know of any one to write to but you. I have had the opportunity to get married, and I believe the fellow loves me, and he is wealthy. I like him very well in some ways. He drinks—this is my objection—but never gets drunk. He is very cunning. He says he loves me with all his heart and I do believe it. I am very beautiful, and of the age of 20. He is of the same age. My parents want me to marry him. Tell me what I should do."

"H. S."

The evidence does not love the young man. A marriage without love is the worst thing in life. You are young. Wait until love comes to you.

DOES HE LOVE HER?

"Dear Miss Blake: I have been corresponding with a fine young man for about a year and a half. We moved away from the place where he lives, and I have been corresponding ever since. I also went with him a short time before I came away. Now, I love this young man very much, but he has never hinted or told me that he loved me. Neither of us go with any one, but he is admired by many."

The young man is probably interested in you and feels that he hasn't time to devote to girls. He undoubtedly has a friendly feeling toward you, but he has probably never given you a thought as far as love is concerned. Don't allow your romantic fancy to dwell upon him. R. S. V. P. is a French phrase meaning please reply. It is used on invitations when a response is requested.

received.

There'll Be Envy Perhaps in the 'Green Eyes'

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Three questions will be answered tonight. In the meantime, perhaps, society is propounding them and enjoying itself in wondering what the answers will be.

First—"Will Miss Alice Keating appear in 'Through Green Eyes' with the lines unchanged?"

Miss Keating will appear in all around victory. Amphlett has written a farce, a really funny farce, with an excellent situation. It is called "Through Green Eyes" and is scheduled to be produced tonight at the Hart Theater in San Mateo as part of the Peninsula Club's annual show, with Miss Alice Keating in the leading role of Mrs. Bradley.

Miss Keating attended a rehearsal yesterday, and when she heard the lines, spoken by Amphlett as Jack Melvin, on which the plot of the farce turns, she entered vigorous objections. The situation discloses Jack Melvin, forbidden to smoke by Dr. Bradley, attempting a cigar in the presence of Mrs. Bradley, while the doctor, suspecting and eavesdropping, is listening outside. The words, to the doctor, sound like a passionate declaration of love to his wife, and they are only those of a man who is going to have a rattling good smoke in spite of the doctor's orders. "Either those lines are changed," said Mrs. Keating, "or my daughter does not take part in the piece."

They did their little best. They pointed out that the whole idea of the play hinged on those lines. The objectionable words were spoken to a cigar and not to a woman, of which the audience is well aware.

But the mountains were fleeing clouds compared to Mrs. Keating. The word "mountain" took on a new significance. No change in the lines, no Alice Keating in the leading woman's part. That was final.

That is how the situation stood last night. Amphlett said he would go on with preparations for the production just as though nothing had happened.

The peninsula club, which is the participants in this "Impasse de Theatre" all belong, takes another view of the situation.

The polo playing set took the opportunity to make a book. Several of them suggested 199 to 1 that Mrs. Keating would win out.

Everybody in Hillsborough, Burlingame and San Mateo is making sure of invitations to the show. All want to be in at the finish.

MRS. MARY SMITH AGAIN IN COURTS

SAN JOSE, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Mary Smith, who four years ago attempted to prove that she was the common law wife of George Wingfield, a Nevada multi-millionaire, is in another matrimonial tangle. Yesterday, in San Jose, she married R. M. Smith, a man who is a Jew rate, but says in her complaint for divorce, filed in the Superior Court yesterday, that her present husband has mistreated her. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of a prominent San Francisco orchardist.

DRUGGIST AND WIFE ARE UNDER ARREST

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Melville Reaves, a druggist, and his 19-year-old wife were arrested yesterday when they were found in a fashionable residence district, charged with the theft of jewelry valued at $18,180 from the office of T. J. Herman, secretary of the Illinois Steel Company. Part of the jewelry was the property of Hy-

an opportunity to invite you to accompany him to the theater or to some lecture or to a party, and so on. If you are willing to accept his attentions.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am writing to you for advice. There was a fellow who was about six months ago and he gave me a lock and many other nice presents. He asked me to marry him and I refused. I said I was too young. He was afraid I was trying to hurt his feelings. Later he made him quit and afterward he asked me for the lock and ring. I offered him everything he had given me, but he wouldn't take anything but those. I would never wear the bracelet he gave me. Now he is married. You know he wanted to marry me, or he would not have married so quick. Do you think I should wear the ring and the bracelet he gave me? He is now 17. I am 16. I would not be doing right to wear the ring and the bracelet. You should have returned everything to him in spite of his refusal to take it. You and I in the future do not accept presents of that sort from a young man unless you are engaged to be married to him. The young man probably was very fond of you, and tried to show his affection by presenting you with handsome gifts."

HE IS WEALTHY.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am in a deep study and don't know of any one to write to but you. I have had the opportunity to get married, and I believe the fellow loves me, and he is wealthy. I like him very well in some ways. He drinks—this is my objection—but never gets drunk. He is very cunning. He says he loves me with all his heart and I do believe it. I am very beautiful, and of the age of 20. He is of the same age. My parents want me to marry him. Tell me what I should do."

"H. S."

The evidence does not love the young man. A marriage without love is the worst thing in life. You are young. Wait until love comes to you.

DOES HE LOVE HER?

"Dear Miss Blake: I have been corresponding with a fine young man for about a year and a half. We moved away from the place where he lives, and I have been corresponding ever since. I also went with him a short time before I came away. Now, I love this young man very much, but he has never hinted or told me that he loved me. Neither of us go with any one, but he is admired by many."

Why does he not tell you he loves you? Do you think he loves me? I once received a post card with "H. S. V. P. on it. Will you please tell me what it means?"

The young man is probably interested in you and feels that he hasn't time to devote to girls. He undoubtedly has a friendly feeling toward you, but he has probably never given you a thought as far as love is concerned. Don't allow your romantic fancy to dwell upon him. R. S. V. Mrs. Gail Borden Loses Family Skeleton Disclosed

MISS RAMONA BORDEN, "THE POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL," AND CENTRAL FIGURE IN BORDEN MARITAL TROUBLE.

Wife of Millionaire Refused Divorce Decree on Ground of Desertion

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The supreme court yesterday denied the suit of Mrs. Helen M. Borden for a divorce from Gail Borden of Alameda, who accumulated many millions in the condensed milk business. Their only child is eighteen-year-old Ramona Borden, "the poor little rich girl," who was allowed $10,000 a year spending money, but is away several times a week from boarding schools. One of her flirts was from Shattuck Seminary, Berkeley.

Matrimonial misadventure has pursued the Gail Borden for a dozen years. They were married in 1903. Mrs. Borden was then the beautiful Miss Helen Vaik of New York. Because of their domestic quarrels the daughter was sent to boarding school when a young child.

In boarding schools she has remained pretty much all the time until now. Only last summer she flouted in an exciting disappearance from a fashionable eastern school. Always when she was found she pleaded that a longing for the love and comfort of a home had led her to run away.

The troubles between the millionaire and his wife became acute in July, 1918, when she left her husband's home in Alameda and found Lord Roberts, a protégé of the Borden family, in the house. There was a scene and Borden packing a traveling bag, left the home with the threat that he would never cross its threshold again.

DIVORCE MADE EASY.
When the wife's suit for divorce came up Borden made no contest. He was willing to allow her to win by default. To his attorney he said:

"Make it as easy as possible for Mrs. Borden to get her decree. You need not write me the divorce, for I am not interested one way or the other. I have agreed to give her $50,000 and a monthly income of $500 as long as she lives. With this and her freedom she ought to be happy."

Judge House, before whom the case was tried, suspected collusion and summoned Borden to the witness stand. Then the court indicated that it believed the real charges of Mrs. Borden against her husband had not been shown and Borden was challenged to tell the story if he wished to see his wife win her divorce.

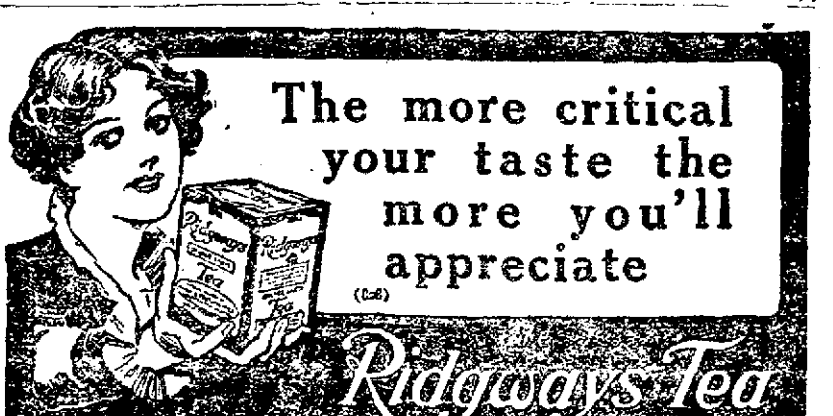

Borden agreed to unfold the story if the judge would exclude all but the witnesses. Judge House refused. Then Borden said he would prefer to have the case dismissed rather than make public the family secrets. The divorce was at once denied and Mrs. Borden carried her case to the supreme court.

FREEMAN WATER REPORT IS SEVERELY CRITICIZED

Women Complimented on Holding of Free Discussion of Water Question

(Con. From Preceding Page)

Three deep wells now in operation produce about double the amount of water heretofore produced by the seventy shallow wells. Four wells are now in the course of construction, three of which will be producers before the first of January. The capacity of the present pumping plant at Fitchburg is 3,500,000 gallons per day. Ten of these deep wells will produce that amount. It is the opinion of our engineering department that this property can support many pipe line connects this system with the great main from Lake Chabot. If at any time in the future the water level at Fitchburg should be lowered to any extent then the overflow water from Lake Chabot may be diverted into these wells and restore the water level.

TWO CITIES SUPPLIED.

"At the north end of the system are the properties known as San Pablo No. 1 and No. 2. From these properties, Richmond and a large portion of Berkeley have been for six years and are now supplied. A large line has been laid up the San Pablo valley for a distance of about nine miles and during a large part of the year 5,000,000 gallons per day can be supplied from this source, and the wells of San Pablo 1 and 2 can be replenished by turning into them the surplus water not needed for daily consumption in that vicinity.

"It will be noted that a duplicate system exists, one storage and the other underground. I know of no other city so circumstanced.

"Five years ago the system was 58 per cent metered and the amount of water consumed was nearly 20,000,000 gallons per day. In 1912 the consumption was 15,200,000 gallons. This has been accomplished by completely metering the entire district, thus checking all waste.

"In taking up the future needs of this district it may be said that in the past thirty years San Francisco has not quite doubled in population, one reason being that San Francisco is limited in its area. The same is practically true of Oakland. These bay cities cannot reach out as has Los Angeles. Nearly all large cities increase their population through absorbing neighboring towns. This cannot be the case in Oakland because all the neighboring towns, with the exception of Hayward, are now supplied with water by our system. It would seem that an increase of 1,500,000 gallons daily would provide for the increased domestic consumption for an indefinite period of years. A half dozen of the Fitchburg wells any year will account for that.

NILES CONE SUPPLY.

"Please note that the San Leandro cone consists of thirty-five square miles and the property now at Fitchburg consists of 300 acres. The Niles cone consists of seventy-four square miles. President Branner of Stanford University, heretofore geologist, states that the western portion of the Niles cone has a depth of 464 feet, consisting of bed rock over 1,000 feet, consisting mainly of gravels. The wells of the Peoples Water Company are about 200 feet deep. The same is true of the dozen wells at the Alameda Sugar Company's works. All of these wells have been pumped for about twenty years. The Peoples Water Company and the Alameda Sugar Company occupy but a very insignificant part of the Niles cone.

"Recently the Alameda Sugar Company was approached by a man from Los Angeles. He produced a well by going to a depth of 464 feet which showed on a test of thirty-six continuous hours three and a quarter million gallons per day. The sugar company needed but 2,000,000 gallons per day and that amount it has pumped uniformly for over two months. At the end of that time it was found that the water level in the other wells had not lowered at all, thus proving that this large amount of water coming from one well has no influence on the other wells but from one to 200 feet removed.

NO FAMINE IN SIGHT.

"In the 264 feet below the 200-foot level the amount of gravel was 177 feet, apparently corroborating President Branner's findings. (See Freeman's report, page 201.) If in a cone consisting of 74 square miles, mostly gravel one well at a depth of 464 feet can furnish continuously for the period of time 2,560,000 gallons of water per day, is it not reasonable to suppose that lies the future of the water question that will preserve this community from any possible water famine? The water company has no intention of increasing its supply from that district. It is very much cheaper to secure the amount which may be needed in the future years from nearer districts and by raising the dam of Lake Chabot. The object of mentioning this is to show the alarmists that no water famine is in sight.

LAKE CHABOT.

"On page 134 of Freeman's report it will be noted that it is proposed to increase the height of the dam to retain 37,000,000,000 gallons of water at a cost of nearly $5,000,000. The capacity of the present dam has sufficed for this district for two and a half dry years, practically without replenishment. The amount of water drawn from the lake is now less than 2,000,000,000 gallons per annum. Such a dam as Freeman proposes would at the present rate of consumption provide for about fifteen years, but would need flood years to purchase of the Spring Valley plant and you have a total of $120,000,000. If the bonds already voted for Hetch Hetchy were used to purchase Spring Valley there would be no money left to construct the dams and pipe systems necessary to bring water from the mountains. San Francisco wants a better service and more water. With this debt hanging over her head and the tentative proposition to develop at small cost the nearby supply from the properties which she will spend something like $10,000,000 in bringing water from the mountains, it is not hard to see it with her neighbors? Will she complete the Calaveras dam and increase the daily supply some 30,000,000 or 40,000,000 gallons at an expense of two or three million dollars and relieve her present situation quickly, or will she spend years of time and many more millions in bringing water from Hetch Hetchy?

"That is the side of the proposition that impresses me," he said. "If Oakland entered into any water arrangement with San Francisco what protection would be given to her rights and interests? She would be the weaker party in any such contract and she, being the weaker party, would be at the mercy of her larger partner. What guarantee have we, or what guarantee has been offered, that the people of Oakland will be fully protected in this arrangement?"

NO COST ESTIMATE MADE.

E. D. Parsons took a few more kinks out of the twists in the Freeman report. He pointed out that in Freeman's estimate for the 45-mile pipeline across the San Joaquin valley, which he said would be assessed the same thing as $17,000,000, the cost was made. He had assumed that the pipes would be subjected to the enormous pressure of 500 pounds per square inch by a concrete casing, but he neglected to say how much this concrete casing would cost or include the cost of it in his estimates. Then he cited another instance, in which Freeman had arbitrarily estimated the cost of excavating the 60-odd miles of tunnels on the Hetch Hetchy project at $10 a foot. The same engineer had estimated the cost of the excavation at $10 a foot and for the same estimate made by Freeman for tunnel excavation on similar projects cutting down his estimate from $120 to $70, Freeman reduced his estimated cost of the Hetch Hetchy project to $17,000,000. He said these overights, whether intentional or inadvertent, made the Freeman report altogether unreliable and untrustworthy. It furnished no reasonable basis of cost either for Hetch Hetchy or any other project.

ATTACKS FREEMAN REPORT.

Mrs. Annie Little Barry took the gavel when the floor discussion began. William E. Baker, director of semiotic literature at Pacific Theological Seminary, Berkeley, again assailed the Freeman report. Since he last spoke he had found a few more inaccuracies. Some of them, he said, were very grave ones. He had found the people of San Francisco were getting blind. They were committed to a project which they did not understand, and which, if carried out, would burden the city with an enormous debt, but the lowest calculation, making the Freeman report as a basis, the cost of the Hetch Hetchy project would impose a debt of $226 upon each man, woman and child in the city. What would be the cost of water with such a debt hanging over the people? They are being supplied with water on an installment plan at $27,000,000. How is it possible, he asked, to get cheaper water by buying the Spring Valley at $37,000,000 and spending $77,000,000 more to bring water from Hetch Hetchy. In that case the cost of water to the consumers in San Francisco would be as $7 to $12.

IRISH ATTACKS RAKER BILL.

Assuming that the Hetch Hetchy project could be completed, the estimate of Freeman, which it cannot, Colonel John P. Irish, speaking for the irrigation interests, attacked the provision of the Raker bill providing for a distribution of the water of the Tuolumne river as being a revolutionary proceeding and as putting in jeopardy the interests of every irrigator in California. He said the summits of the Sierra Nevada from the head of Kings river to Lake Tahoe are included in forest reserves. Because the rivers have their sources in the snow which fall on the summits of the mountains, the Raker bill undertakes to say that the government has the right to follow the water after it leaves the boundaries of the government's property and distribute it in any way that it may see fit, the whole length of the stream. That proceeding, he said, destroys the right of every riparian owner and every water appropriator. The money invested in public and private irrigation projects can be made the sport and whim of Congress, because if the principles asserted in the Raker bill be upheld Congress can at any time pass an act for a different distribution of the waters from that provided by state law, or the system under which we are now operating.

WHY DAMAGE IRRIGATORS?

Colonel Irish said there was no need for San Francisco to take the water of the Tuolumne river from the irrigators, who need it, at great cost when she had a much nearer supply which she could obtain at small cost without injuring anybody or antagonizing any interests.

"Our San Francisco neighbors can find out all about this source of supply by reading the municipal reports for two or three years preceding

purchase of the Spring Valley plant and you have a total of $120,000,000. If the bonds already voted for Hetch Hetchy were used to purchase Spring Valley there would be no money left to construct the dams and pipe systems necessary to bring water from the mountains. FALCONI MURDER TRIAL NOW IN HANDS OF JURY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The trial of Frank Falconi, who March 15, 1913, is alleged to have killed Emilio Divincenzi, a young prizefighter, was brought to a close today. Judge Cabanis instructed the jury shortly before noon and the twelve men retired to deliberate. After he was shot Divincenzi dragged himself for a block, finally expiring on the pavement. Falconi surrendered to the police. At a previous trial the jury disagreed.

HOTEL AGAIN FIRED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The third fire this week aroused guests of the Hotel Fresno, Leavenworth and Eddy streets, early this morning. Several startled residents made their way to the street at the first alarm. The department quickly extinguished the blaze, which started in a closet on the main floor.

Several days ago two fires of incendiary origin were found in two apartments in the building.

EDITORIAL.

This will be the last regular edition of Bowman's Bulletin until after Christmas for the reason that holiday stocks are crowding for recognition and must be advertised by the regulation methods.

We believe that Bowman's Bulletins accurately reflect the characteristics of the store and we hope to continue them as soon as the Christmas rush is over.

Never in our history have we entered a holiday season so well prepared to serve the Christmas buyer.

We have been notified, by the Eastman Kodak Company, that early in January their Kodak Exhibition will be held, for one week, in the ball room at Hotel Oakland.

This exhibition is traveling on a fixed schedule from place to place in its own special car and later on you will be able to procure tickets to the same at Bowman's.

The exhibit, which will probably be one of the most interesting of the kind you've ever attended, is to be divided into three features—First, the exhibition of about 500 enlargements selected from over thirty thousand negatives obtained from all parts of the world. The second feature will be a series of illustrated lectures, afternoons and evenings, and the third a series of motion pictures.

There will also be demonstrations of developing and printing, bringing out clearly the simplicity of the entire picture making process by the Kodak system.

Everyone interested in this exhibit can get full information at our Kodak department—where tickets will be distributed, without cost, as soon as they arrive.

Our stock is so large, so new, and so tremendously varied that it would seem foolish to go anywhere else until you have at least tried at Bowman's.

We have, for several years made a specialty of hand bags.

25% OFF ON OUT GLASS

We are closing out the cut glass department because we have no facilities for showing it properly. Anything at 25% off.

Hand Luggage TO BE PROUD OF

Made by makers who make the best—by men who take more pride in their output than they do profit worth.

Real wheel luggage of the sturdy sort that makes you proud to claim it. That's the kind you get at Bowman's and it's the only kind worth while.

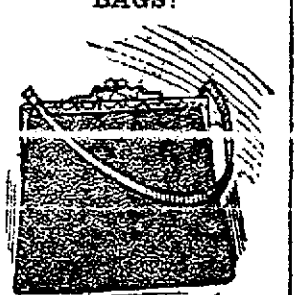

People judge a stranger by his luggage, and you're a stranger when you travel. Grips and suit cases of the best of solid leathers, or of cane or matting, at Bowman's prices are good investments.

Free Tickets to be given out at Bowman's later on. Ask the man at the Kodak counter for detailed information.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY HAND BAGS!

All materials. Every shape and size and color ready now. If you expect to buy a hand bag for some one for Christmas by all means take our tip and get it now.

A hand bag is something which should be selected with care and with due appreciation of the use to which it is to be put. To be fashionably correct, the hand bag should be selected with due consideration for the gown. For a gift, of course the likely preferences of the recipient should be considered, black being always correct.

Over the Spot that Hurts

That's the place to put an Allcock's Plaster. Many of the most intense pains are of local origin, and the way to relieve them is by direct outside application. For a crick in the back, a sudden twinge of rheumatism, and all-over soreness arising from a cold, in fact, for any kind of ache or pain, an

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER

is by far the quickest, safest and most certain remedy. Cheap, too. And, best of all, you needn't stay at home all bundled up, but can go right ahead with your work while the healing process goes on. Lots of imitations on the market, but remember there is

ONLY ONE POROUS PLASTER WHICH DOES ALL THE WORK AND THAT IS ALLCOCK'S

That a porous plaster should be so.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Common Sense Advice by a Distinguished Specialist.

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the stomach as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia, a simple anti-acid, taken in a little warm or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acidity is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause greatest distress may be eaten with impunity if the meal is followed with the bisulphated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy.

Ellen Beach Yaw Is to Sing Unusual Theatrical Week

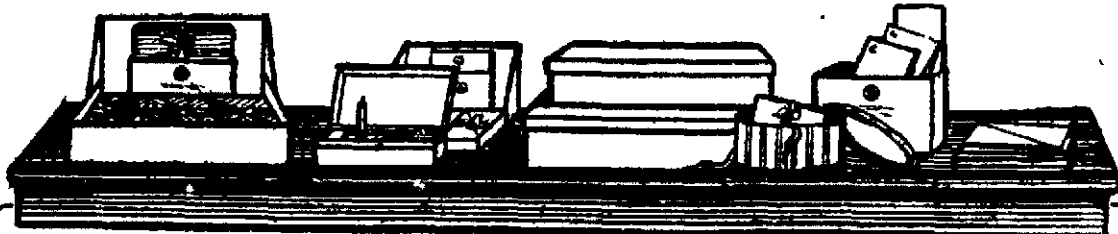

MISS RAY BAILEY OF GENARO AND BAILEY, AT THE ORPHEUM; AND ELMER BOOTH, TO BE SEEN AT MACDONOUGH IN "STOP THIEF."

Offerings at Various Playhouses Replete With Interest

THEY use large and fancy and superlative terms to describe the new vaudeville bill that came to the Oakland Orpheum this week and they were quite justified in doing so for it is unquestionably a tremendous affair. It looks as though money had been poured out like water to secure the features.

Up at the top of the list is Ellen Beach Yaw, the famous soprano whose salary alone is of the size "cat" make many actors dizzy. We used to pay $2 to hear Ellen Beach Yaw in concert, when her remarkable voice first startled the world. She is at the height of her power now and graces the place on the Orpheum bill with all the art and skill of one of the world's greatest prima donnas. Her beautiful mezzo-soprano voice, with its like truth and singularly clear sweet tones, entrances the crowds. The lady sings several compositions that show the beauty of her tones and then favors the audience with an encore by singing a familiar ballad which, as she renders it, takes on new beauty never suspected

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN DIGESTS FOOD WHEN STOMACH CAN'T -- IT'S GREAT

Stops Indigestion, Sourness, Gas and Dyspepsia in Five Minutes.

If you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you, if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you need Pape's Diapepsin to stop food fermentation and indigestion.

It neutralizes excessive acid, stomach poison; absorbs that misery-making gas and stops fermentation, which causes your entire meal and causes Dyspepsia, Sick-Headache, Bloating, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer in five minutes that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that relief is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

MISS RIEGELMAN GETS BIG ROLES

Oakland Prima Donna Assigned Leading Parts in Chicago Opera Performances.

Local friends of Mabel Riegleman, the Chicago Grand Opera Company's prima donna, whose home is in Oakland, were pleased this week with the information that the talented young Californian had been assigned leading parts in seven out of ten performances now being given at the Auditorium Theater in Chicago by the Chicago Grand Opera Company.

by the ordinary vocalists of vaudeville.

Laughs in abundance come when George Roland and his merry farceurs put on "Fixing the Furnace." No one would ever dream there could be so much fun involved in such a commonplace task as that of fixing the furnace, but George Roland shows just how it can be done. The audience screams with laughter at his renunciation as a furnace "fixer."

Dupree and Dupree are novelty crooners, who take their lives in their hands constantly as they attempt daring feats on the smoothly running wheels.

Maxwell Montgomery, the ventriloquist, is a big hit.

America's Welsh, a mighty good actor, in a mighty good sketch, which by the way, was written by Willard Mack, the actor, registered a big snoring hit with the throng. His play is called "Your Flag and Mine." It is a melodramatic bit and played with rare art.

Dave Genaro and Ray Bailey, who were here several years ago and returned to a riotous reception, secured a big success with their character dances and smart singing, to say nothing of Miss Ray Bailey's beautiful gowns and her still more beautiful voice and form.

The Six Musical Cuties repeated their big successes of last week, as did also the Three Collegians, the Jolly Lads with the college songs and fun making.

The exclusive motion pictures include a "very funny picture called 'The Gangsters'" and a Pathe Weekly, which gives the world's news in picture form.

Next Sunday Miss Dazle appears in Sir James N. Barrie's pantomime, "Pantomime," with a big company supporting her.

MACDONOUGH

"The Common Law," which closes at the Macdonough Theater tonight, tells a remarkable love story between two people, both gifted with rare intelligence and powers of reasoning not usually accorded to most mortals. Chambers has written a series of gripping situations and thrilling climaxes.

An announcement that should excite the keen interest of all who are interested in the real worth of the stage, is that of the coming of Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan Company in Edward Sheldon's play, "The High Road," in which she is now appearing for the second season, and which last year, in New York and elsewhere, brought to her a measure of enthusiastic critical and public favor such as even she has not known in many years.

This greatly-to-be-looked-forward-to engagement is scheduled for the Macdonough on Friday, Saturday and Sunday matinees.

"Stop Thief," Cohan and Harris' latest farce, weighted down with merry laughs and startling thrills, will be presented at the Macdonough Theater for four nights and a special Wednesday matinee, beginning Sunday evening, December 7.

Laden with the spoils of three theatrical seasons and the victor in hundreds of encounters with critics and audiences, North, east, South and West, "The Crocodile Soldier," Oscar Straus' peerless musical version of George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man," and the Whitney

Chocolate Soldierettes will march into this city on Thursday, December 11, staying until Saturday, December 13, with a matinee Saturday to gain the allegiance of the theater-goers of Oakland with the blandishments of their songs and the charms of their adventure.

Robert F. Mantell, who comes to the Macdonough soon again, has the laugh on the so-called level-headed showman. When he announced a few seasons ago that he proposed to retire "King Lear," he was informed by all his theatrical friends that there would not be a night in it. Yet "King Lear" for the past seven seasons has been the most successful play from the box office standpoint, in Mantell's entire repertoire.

PANTAGES

The Oxford Quartet is proving a veritable riot at the Pantages this week. The singers do not overdo it with the result a laughing riot. A former Oakland school girl, Inez Lenora, is attracting a host of friends and schoolmates to the theater. Miss Lenora has a splendidly cultivated voice, and with her partner, Jacques Wilson, offer a refined act. It is composed of singing, whistling and yodling.

Other pleasing numbers on the Pantages bill are the Five Bragadons in a knockabout farce, "Fun in a Vandyke Agency," the Richmond Hutchins' players in the one-act comedy, "An Eventful Honey-moon," the Bottomly Troupe of Two sensational mid-air acrobats, the Sarah Moore Maids, and two more of comic pictures.

For the coming week there will be four headline features and three other new acts. Signor Aurelio Cocca will present Mile Minni Amato in the pantomime dancing spectacle, "The Apple of Paris." Cleopatra Odway will give three numbers of London types. The Five Fire-songs Troupe will show what expert jugglers really is, and Miss Marion Van-son will appear in a protean sketch, of some six character changes.

MONEY, knowledge, time and effort were employed to the utmost to produce in OMAR the best Turkish Blend Cigarette ever offered to American smokers.

OMAR is a DIFFERENT COMBINATION of Turkish and domestic tobaccos than any ever before blended—more delightful than anything Turkish Blend smokers have heretofore known.

The men who produced OMAR knew what HAD BEEN DONE in the Turkish Blend field, and backed by the resources of the GREATEST TOBACCO ORGANIZATION in the world, they succeeded in producing something unquestionably BETTER.

We maintain IN TURKEY our OWN buying organization, and secured for OMAR the choicest leaf that Turkey grows—the most suitable varieties. We selected our domestic tobacco for OMAR without regard to cost.

With this carefully selected MATERIAL the master blenders of the world set to work. Hundreds of blend variations were tried—and among them was the one PERFECT combination of Turkish and Domestic tobacco, now used in OMAR.

OMAR is perfected to a point beyond which it is NOT POSSIBLE to go, and which in the past has NEVER BEEN REACHED.

Smokers who TRY OMAR are a UNIT in declaring that there is simply no comparison between OMAR and any other Turkish Blend—that OMAR has made of Turkish Blend smoking AN ABSOLUTELY NEW DELIGHT.

We ask but one FAVOR. TRY OMAR AND COMPARE IT WITH OTHERS.
